No. 367 (second publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued y the British Admiralty (No. 1228 of 1909), are republished:—

Subject.—Astraea channel southward of Gough island, formerly known as Junk channel, is open during daylight to vessels wishing to use it. The undermentioned beacons and buoys have been established, and the directions given below should be followed:—

Position.—High Bar mark, lat. 31° 21½′ N., long. 121° 31¾′ E.

Description.—Pile beacon, surmounted by a ball, painted black.

2. Leading beacons established:

Position.—Situated at the south-eastern end of Gough island, with High Bar mark bearing N. 37° W., distant 14$\frac{4}{10}$ cables.

Description.—Pole beacon, surmounted by a triangle, point upwards, painted black.

(b) Rear beacon—

Position.—Situated at a distance of $\frac{6}{10}$ cables, S. 81° E., from front beacon.

Description.—Pole beacon, surmounted by a triangle, point downwards, painted black.

Remarks.—These two beacons in line, S. 81° E., indicate the centre of the Astraea channel.

3. Buoys established:

(a) Position.—Moored on the southern side of the channel, with Limit beacon bearing S. 24° W., distant $1\frac{1}{10}$ cables.
(b) Position.—Moored on the southern side of the channel, with Limit beacon bearing N. 73° W., distant $4\frac{1}{2}$ cables.
(c) Position.—Moored on the southern side of the channel, with Limit beacon bearing N. 77° W., distant $13\frac{3}{4}$ cables.

Description.—The above buoys are conical buoys, painted red, and numbered Nos. 1, 2, and 3, respectively.

Directions:

Vessels inward bound should, after having passed the Wusung inner bar signal station, keep $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables from the embankment on the left bank of the river and pass No. 1 buoy, moored off Limit beacon, on the starboard hand and at a distance of half a cable; continuing up river, pass No. 2 buoy on the same hand and at the same distance. When abreast No. 2 buoy, follow up the line of leading marks until abreast No. 3 buoy, where divert from the line and keep about half a cable from the Conservancy works on Gough island until having passed the upper end of such works, which is marked by a pile beacon, surmounted by a ball, painted black.

The difference between the depth of water in the Astraea channel and that on the Wusung inner bar, as indicated by the signals at the inner bar signal station, will be shown at the Wusung lighthouse and from the higher of the two leading marks on Gough island, as under:

Difference, in feet.	Symbols.

When the depth of water in the Astraea channel is more than on the Wusung inner bar, symbols as above will be shown on the southern yard-arm, and when less, on the northern yard-arm; if the depth be the same as on the Wusung inner bar, no symbols will be shown.

In order to avoid accidents, vessels intending to pass through the Astraea channel must hoist a black ball at the fore truck when abreast the Wusung lighthouse on vessels inward bound, and when abreast Black point, or as soon as the signals at the Wusung inner bar signal station can be seen, on board vessels outward bound.

Caution.—Mariners are cautioned that they must go dead slow when passing the barges engaged in dropping "zinkstuks" in the Ship channel and when passing any other Conservancy works in course of construction.

When dredgers are at work in the Astraea channel, steam vessels should, when approaching them, sound their whistles and slow down, to give the dredgers time to slacken their moorings.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,

Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 4th October 1909.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1909.

[On an average of five years ending 1907-08, the area under autumn rice in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 5·9 per cent. of the total area under this crop in British India.]

Explanatory.—The staple bhadoi crop of the Province as a whole is autumn rice. It covers about 50 per cent. of the total area under all bhadoi crops. Millets and maize are cultivated chiefly in Bihar and Chota Nagpur.

Character of the Season.—In April, the rainfall was above the average in all districts. In May, it was in defect, but there was sufficient moisture in the soil for sowing. In June, the rainfall was in excess of the normal, but in July defective. In the end of August, excessive rain and floods did damage in Bihar and Palamau. Maize suffered very badly in Bihar. Insect-pests appeared in Jessore and Sambalpur, but the injury was local. Prospects are, on the whole, fairly good.

Area sown.—The area sown as returned by District Officers is 9,548,200 acres, as against 9,031,200 acres of last year. The estimates of the total normal area is 9,548,700 acres. The increase in the area sown is due to seasonable weather at the time of sowing and to a decrease in the area cultivated with jute owing to the low prices of jute in the previous year.

Outturn.—The appendix attached to this note shows that in Burdwan, Khulna, Darbhanga, the Sonthal Parganas, Balasore and Ranchi, 100 per cent. crops are likely to be harvested. In seven districts, the estimates received range from 90 to 98 per cent., in eight districts from 80 to 88 per cent. and in nine districts from 72 to 78 per cent. In the remaining three districts, the estimates are as follow:—Darjeeling, 60 per cent.; Murshidabad, 61 per cent.; and Saran, 65 per cent.

From all the information that has come to hand, indication is given of an 85 per cent. crop for the Province; but in view of the satisfactory character of the season, I am of opinion that the crop will not be short of the normal for the Province as a whole.

W. R. GOURLAY,

Offg. Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

April to June	The increase in the estimated area under autumn rice, as compared with last year, is due to the fact that, on account of the falling off in the demand for jute, the ryots have reduced the area under jute and increased that under autumn rice in the Basirhat Subdivision. The weather was favourable and the condition of the crops is generally good, but want of rain during the greater part of July affected the crops injuriously. SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL AND IN EASTERN BENGAL AND ASSAM FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST 1909.

At the beginning of the month weather in the two provinces was affected by a depression in the Bay, which, crossing the coast on the morning of the 1st, advanced in a northwesterly direction across Orissa, giving moderate rain in Bengal and Bihar, but comparatively little elsewhere. During the first week fairly heavy rain fell in Eastern Bengal and Assam. The mean temperature at this time was everywhere in slight defect, except in Chota Nagpur. General rain continued until the 11th (accompanied by a defect in the mean temperature of 5 or .6 degrees in Bihar), when the amount received diminished somewhat. Cloud development also became reduced and the mean temperature rose. On the 18th, temperature was practically normal over the whole area, while the rainfall again became fairly general. It continued so until the end of the month, when a disturbance from Burma, passing over the head of the Bay, affected the weather in the two Provinces and subsequently in Bihar. Several heavy falls were reported on the 30th, notably 10 inches at Burdwan, 7 at Bankura, and 7 at Noakhali.

On the whole month, rainfall was 17 per cent. in defect in Orissa, 97 per cent. in excess in Bengal, and 50 per cent. in excess in Chota Nagpur. Humidity and mean temperature were not far from normal at most stations.

Summary of temperature.—The highest temperature recorded was 96·6° at Daltonganj, and the lowest (69 8°) was recorded at Hazaribagh.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Provinces of Eastern Bengal and Assam and of Bengal for the month of August 1909:—

Summary of rainfall.—The rainfall work of the Province has been placed in the hands of the Director of Agriculture, Bengal, and the usual data regarding the actual and normal rainfall during the month are published by that officer. A short table, however, is attached to this report, giving the rainfall recorded during the month at the head-quarters of the various districts of the Province :—

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast ; d, drizzling rain.

11. Water rates imposed under rule 8 shall fall due as soon as the assessment is made and shall be realised at once.

12. Objections to the demand statements must be presented within thirty days of the date on which the parcha was received by the lambardar, but the period shall be extended where reasonable cause for delay can be established.

On Remissions.

13. Remission of water rates, either in whole or in part, shall be granted as follows:—

(i) By the Divisional Canal Officer for errors in assessment or rates.
(ii) By the Divisional Canal Officer for injury to a crop on a leased area caused by a deficiency in the supply of water.

In the latter case a written application must be made at least 20 days before the crop is cut.

14. Remissions on other grounds than the above require the sanction of Superintending Canal Officer.

15. In cases where sums due on account of water rates cannot be collected owing to the death, bankruptcy, or absconding of the defaulter, the amount which is not realisable may be written off as irrecoverable on the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer.

On Cultivators' Representatives.

16. In all applications and permits the names of one or more persons shall be entered as lambardar, who will be responsible for discharging the duties mentioned below:—

(i) Obtaining signatures to applications and certifying to the correctness of the name.
(ii) Attending and giving assistance in measuring land irrigated, or proposed to be irrigated.
(iii) Giving timely information to the Canal Officer or subordinate of any insufficiency in the supply of water and promptly reporting when the irrigation of the leased area, or any channel, is complete.
(iv) Supervising the distribution of the water supplied through an outlet amongst the persons entitled thereto and reporting any misuse of the same.
(v) Being present when complaints are investigated by a Canal Officer, or subordinate, and giving information required in connection with the same.
(vi) Receiving parchas from the Canal Officer and distributing the same amongst the persons named therein.
(vii) Reporting before the 15th of October all cases in which crops have been injured by deficiency or irregularity of supply in the kharif season so that these cases may be investigated before water rates are demanded.
(viii) Assisting the Collector by pointing out the residences of the persons assessed and identifying them.

17. The remuneration for performing the duties mentioned in the rule immediately preceding shall be two per cent. on the assessment (excluding fractions of a rupee) which shall be paid by the Canal Officer. The amount paid shall be calculated in rupees and annas only, pies being omitted.

18. The lambardar will be appointed by the Subdivisional Officer in consultation with the applicants for the lease, and must be a substantial person having a beneficial interest in part of the land to be irrigated. There is no objection to different lambardars being appointed to represent sections of the applicants, or to two or more persons being jointly appointed as lambardars on behalf of the whole of the applicants. In case the Subdivisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of lambardar, he shall nominate a lambardar for approval by the Divisional Canal Officer.

19. The Divisional Canal Officer may, for reasons which appear to him to be sufficient and which must be recorded, remove a lambardar from his appointment, and in that case a new lambardar shall be appointed in the manner prescribed in the rule immediately preceding.

20. The fees to be paid to lambardars will only be disbursed if the duties specified have been satisfactorily performed. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees payable for reasons to be recorded in writing.

On Unauthorised Irrigation.

21. For the unauthorised use of canal water a rate of Rs. 5 per acre shall be charged; this rate may, however, be reduced at the discretion of the Divisional Canal Officer.

22. When it comes to the knowledge of the Subdivisional Canal Officer that canal water has been taken in an unauthorised manner, he shall hold a local investigation, and, if he considers that the land deriving benefit is liable to assessment, he shall serve a notice on the persons concerned, fixing a date for hearing objections. Any objections made shall be taken down and the whole record forwarded to the Divisional Canal Officer for disposal.

23. The Divisional Canal Officer after hearing any objection that may be raised shall, if he is of opinion that the land should be assessed, fix the rates allowed under rule 21 and return the record to the Subdivisional Canal Officer who shall then complete the assessment. Water rates shall not be charged where the unauthorised irrigation has occurred through the act, neglect or default of a Canal Officer or subordinate.

24. Applications for leases may be subsequently received from villages in which unauthorised irrigation has occurred, and these villages may be granted leases; in such cases the persons assessed under rule 21 shall also pay the water rates due in respect of the lease subsequently granted, provided that the total of those two rates shall not exceed the maximum rate chargeable under rule 21. In such cases of double assessment the Divisional Canal Officer may remit, in whole or in part, the rates assessed under rule 21.

On Penalties and Cancelling of Leases.

25. The Superintending Canal Officer may, with the concurrence of the Collector, direct the Divisional Canal Officer to cease to issue permits for the irrigation of lands in villages where there have been constant difficulties in realising water rates until all the arrears of water rates due are paid up; and also, if specially so ordered, until half the amount due under new applications is paid in advance. An order under this rule shall be in force for the time stated therein, which shall not exceed three years.

Miscellaneous.

26. No person shall, without the written permission of the Divisional or Subdivisional Canal Officer, pass or cause any animal or vehicle to pass along or across any of the works channels or banks of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, except by means of such bridges, fords and ferries and their approaches as have been provided for the purpose. Any person who after due warning breaks this rule may be proceeded against under section 93, caluse (9) of the Bengal Irrigation Act III of 1876.

27. Unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operations of these rules, no officer employed on the canal shall have any interest in the distribution of water from it, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

28. Any Canal Officer may, in the case of pressing emergency, stop the supply of water to any canal or distributary. If such order is passed by an officer below the rank of a Divisional Canal Officer, it shall forthwith be reported to the Divisional Canal Officer, and if the stoppage exceeds five days in duration, to the Superintending Canal Officer.

29. No water shall be supplied nor shall any person be entitled to a supply of water until a permit signed by a Canal Officer authorised to sign a permit, has been signed and issued.

Martin and Company, Calcutta, for and on behalf of a Company about to be formed and to be called the Arrah-Sasaram Tramway Company, Limited, for sanction to the construction of a line of tramway between Arrah and Sasaram, within the district of Shahabad; and whereas it appears to the Local Government expedient and proper that the said application should be granted, the Local Government, in pursuance of section 5 of the Bengal Tramways Act, III of 1883, makes the following Order.

T. BUTLER,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

PRELIMINARY.

Law applicable to the tramway.

3. (1) The tramway authorized by this Order shall be constructed, maintained and worked, subject to the provisions of the Act, of the rules from time to time in force under the Act, and of this Order.

(2) No powers or rights, shall be deemed to have been conferred on the Promoters or to have been relinquished by Government, except as in this Order expressly provided.

4. Messrs. Martin and Company, Calcutta, shall be the Promoters for the purposes of this Order, and are, in this Order, referred to as "the Promoters," and this expression shall, except where the context may require a different construction, include the Company to be formed and to be called the Arrah-Sasaram Tramway Company, Limited, hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Company."

CONSTRUCTION OF TRAMWAY.

Authority to Promoters to construct tramway.

5. The Promoters shall construct and maintain, subject to the provisions specified in this Order and to the agreement made between the Promoters and the Local Authorities, which are set forth in the First Schedule attached to this Order, and in accordance, also, with plans and sections deposited by the Promoters with the Local Government, the tramway hereinafter described, with all proper establishments, rails, bearings, stations, offices, works, rolling-stock, and conveniences connected with the tramway or required for the purposes thereof.

Dates for commencing and completing the tramway.

6. (1) Subject to any extension of time that the Local Government may see fit to grant, the Promoters shall substantially commence the construction of the said tramway within one year from the date of this Order, and shall complete and equip the same in every respect for opening and working for traffic to the satisfaction of the Local Government, within two years from the date of commencement.

(2) In the event of the said Promoters failing to commence the construction, and to complete and equip the tramway as provided in the first paragraph of this clause, then and in any such case the Local Government shall be at liberty to revoke this Order, and the Local Government shall thereafter be at liberty to enter into any arrangements with any other person or persons for the construction of a tramway from Arrah to Sasaram, and in the event of this Order being revoked by reason of the said Promoters failing to complete and equip, and open for traffic, the said tramway within the period of three years from the date of this Order, the Local Government shall have the option of taking over all the permanent-way and rolling-stock of the tramway at a reasonable valuation to be determined by the Local Government, and in the event of the Local Government exercising this option, all the other works and the buildings of the tramway may be dealt with under the provisions of the Act relating to the discontinuance of tramways as a tramway whereof the discontinuance has been proved to the satisfaction of the Local Government.

If, however, the Local Government do not desire to exercise the option of taking over the permanent-way and rolling-stock of the tramway as herein provided, then, and in such case the tramway including the permanent-way, the rolling-stock, and all the buildings and works of every kind connected therewith, may be dealt with under the provisions of the Act relating to the discontinuance of tramways, as the tramway whereof the discontinuance has been proved to the satisfaction of the Local Government.

Description of the tramway.

7. The tramway authorized by this Order is a single line with necessary passing places, within the district of Shahabad, starting from Arrah, a station on the chord line of the East Indian Railway, in the district of Shahabad, and running from north to south along the District Board road to Sasaram, a station on the grand chord line of the East Indian Railway, being a distance of 60¼ miles and entirely within the district of Shahabad.

The line, after leaving Arrah station, is on a diversion, joining the district road at mile ¾; at mile 6 is the first station, Kusap, Garhani being reached at mile 11, Mahloor at 18¾, Piru at mile 24, Katar 29, Bikramganj 34¾, Sujhowlee 42, Nokhea 48, Khuradee 53¾, and, finally, Sasaram at mile 60¼.

8. The Promoters may use for the construction of the tramway, but not for the purposes of any building or erection connected therewith, one side of the road over which the tramway is to run 8 feet in width.

Promoters authorised to use the road subject to limitation.

In cases where there are no buildings on that side of the road on which the tramway is laid, the said width of 8 feet shall be measured from the gutter on that side of the road, or where the road is in embankment, from the edge of the embankment; and in cases where there are buildings on that side of the road, the said width shall be measured from such point on that side as in the opinion of the Government Inspector of Local Works appointed for the district of Shahabad under provisions of section 123 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act [Act III (B.C.) of 1885], is safe and proper; but for the purpose of crossing bridges the tramway may approach the centre of the road as far as shall, in each case, be deemed unavoidable by the said Government Inspector of Local Works.

Provided always that—

(1) there shall nowhere be a less width of road clear of the inner rail of the tramway than 14 feet;

(2) if any addition to the existing width of the metalled surface of the road is rendered necessary in order to comply with the terms of this Order, or if any addition to, or alteration of, any bridge is, in the opinion of the Government Inspector of Local Works, rendered necessary by the tramway, the same shall be carried out by, and at the cost of, the Promoters to the satisfaction of the said Government Inspector of Local Works;

(3) at no point on the metalled road shall there be more than one line of rails; any loop-lines, turn-outs, or sidings that may be required must therefore be placed elsewhere than on the metalled portion of the road;

(4) the metalling of the roadway shall not be interfered with more than is absolutely necessary for the proper construction of the tramway; and in all cases where such metalling has been so interfered with, it shall be repaired and made good with all reasonable promptitude by, and at the cost of, the Promoters to the satisfaction of the Government Inspector of Local Works.

9. In all cases where, in the opinion of the Government Inspector of Local Works, the existing road bridges are not sufficiently strong to carry the tramway, the Promoters shall make at their own cost such additions to, or alterations of, any such bridges as may be required by the said Inspector of Local Works, and the work shall be carried out and completed to his satisfaction;

Bridges.

Provided that the Promoters may, at their option, construct at their own cost, for the purposes of the tramway, separate bridges of such design and in such manner as shall first be approved by an Engineer or other officer duly appointed in this behalf by the Local Government, and shall complete the same to the satisfaction of the said officer.

10. (1) Such additional land (over and above that which the Local Authorities have agreed to grant free to the Promoters, in terms of clause 1, First Schedule, hereunto annexed) as may be required by the Promoters and deemed by the Local Government to be necessary for the purposes of the tramway shall be acquired by the Local Government on behalf of the Promoters under the Land Acquisition Act, I of 1894, and the cost of acquiring such land shall be met by the Promoters.

Acquisition of additional land required by Promoters. Disposal of land not required by the Promoters.

(2) The Promoters may, from time to time with the approval of the Local Government, but not otherwise sell or otherwise dispose of any land acquired by the Local Government on their behalf, which may no longer be required for the purposes of the undertaking.

11. The tramway shall be constructed on a gauge of 2 feet 6 inches. In villages and at all level-crossings of districts or village roads, and wherever the width of metalled road left clear of the inner rail of the tramway is less than 14 feet and the tramway is not fenced, either grooved or double rails shall be used, and at all such places the metal of the road shall be maintained flush with the level of the top of the rails. At all places where double rails are used, such rails shall be kept properly secured to each other by distance pieces placed at regular intervals to the satisfaction of the Government Inspector of Local Works.

Gauge of tramway and provision regarding grooved or double rails.

12. Without prejudice to the powers conferred on the Local Authority by section 14 of the Act, as regards the type of cars and carriages to be used on the tramway and the brakes and other appliances with which they are to be furnished, the standard weights and dimensions of rails, sleepers, rolling-stock, and other equipment of the tramway are to be as set forth and described in the Second Schedule attached to this Order. The Local Government, however, reserves to itself the right to revise the said standard weights and dimensions, and the special sanction of the Local Government must be obtained before the materials, etc., required for the tramway are ordered.

Standard dimensions to be observed.

13. The Local Government shall have the power of determining, from time to time, the situation and dimensions of all stations, station-yards, offices, warehouses, houses for employés, conveniences and works to be constructed in connection with or as part of the tramway.

Stations and buildings.

14. The Promoters shall within three calendar months of being called upon by the Local Government to do so be bound to provide at their own expense fencing on both sides of the tramway, either along the whole or any part of its length, and shall carry out and complete the work in such manner and in such time as the Local Government may direct.

Fencing.

15. (1) The Promoters bind themselves to provide, at their own cost and to the satisfaction of the Local Government, suitable level-crossings wherever the tramway crosses district and village roads, and at such other places as the Local Government or any officer appointed by the Local Government in this behalf may, from time to time, direct.

Provision of level-crossings, gates, and gatemen.

(2) The Promoters shall, at their own cost, provide gates with gate-keepers' lodges, and shall maintain, at their own cost, gate-keepers at such level-crossings or bridges crossed by the tramway as the Local Government may, from time to time, direct.

16. Subject to the previous sanction of the Local Government in each case, the Promoters may hereafter from time to time make, at their own cost, such crossings, passing-places, junctions, and other works as may be required, in addition to those specified in their application for this Order or authorised by this Order, and all such works shall, when sanctioned by the Local Government, be completed to the satisfaction of the Local Government.

Provision of additional crossing places, etc., required by Promoters.

17. The Promoters shall, at their own cost, construct and maintain all such stations, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and all other works in addition to those specified in, or authorised by, this Order, and shall also employ and maintain all such establishments, in addition to those specified in, or authorised by, this Order as the Local Government may, from time to time, consider to be expedient for the safe and efficient working of the tramway, or for the convenience and safety of the public and of the traffic of the roadway. All such additional works shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Local Government.

Additional works required by Local Government.

18. The Promoters shall, when required by the Local Government, construct and maintain, at their own cost, accommodation at Railway Stations for Post-offices and quarters for the postal staff, at a rental not exceeding 7½ per cent. per annum on the actual cost of the buildings, excluding the cost of land occupied by it.

20. The speed of trains on the tramway should not exceed 12 miles by day and 10 miles by night or such other speed as may from time to time be authorised by the Local Government, provided that no night-running shall be permitted unless the engine is fitted with a head-light of 1,500 candle-power. (Engines shall be fitted with cow-catchers if the line is not fenced.)

21. All the permanent and crossing stations of the tramway shall be provided with home signals, which shall be at least 20 feet in height, and shall be located on the platforms. The Local Government, however, reserves to itself the right to order distant signals to be provided at the permanent and crossing stations, as well as both home and distant signals at such other stations, in addition to those referred to herein, and at such other places as may be considered necessary by the Local Government.

22. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the Local Government, or of any officer duly appointed in this behalf by the Local Government, all way, works, rolling-stock and appliances appertaining to the tramway; and shall maintain the tramway, way works, rolling-stock and appliances, and shall work the same in such manner as will, to the satisfaction of the Government Inspector of Local Works, avoid all risks of danger or annoyance to the ordinary road traffic.

The said portion of the road shall be ballasted by, and at the cost of, the Promoters, who shall also, at their own cost, alter the position or level of the tramway and of the said portion of the road to suit future alterations in the road or such further alterations in the tramway as may be approved by the Local Government, and shall forthwith repair, make good, and reinstate, to the satisfaction of the Government Inspector of Local Works aforesaid, any other portion of the road which shall at any time be in any way damaged by reason of any fault of the Promoters or of any accident to or upon the tramway. The gutter or drain on the side of the road on which the tramway is laid, as the same at present exists or shall hereafter be constructed at the cost of the Local Government or of the Local Authority, shall likewise be maintained in efficient order by and at the cost of the Promoters.

(2) The portions of the road from 4 feet from the centre line of the tramway to the opposite side of the road from the tramway will be maintained and kept in repair by, and at the expense of, the Local Authority.

28. (1) In the event of any necessity arising for carrying out, in or on land occupied by the tramway, any works of any kind whatsoever, for which interference with the tramway may be considered necessary by the Local Government, the said Government may, by notice in writing and without prejudice to the powers conferred on the Local Authorities by section 38 of the Act, call upon the Promoters to show cause why such portion of the tramway should not be closed for traffic as may enable the said works to be carried out in safety.

After considering the necessity for closing such portion of the tramway as well as any objections or suggestions that may be made by the Promoters, the Local Government may direct that the Promoters shall close the said portion of the tramway for such a period of time and under such conditions as in the circumstances of the case may appear necessary.

(2) The Promoters shall be bound to comply with such directions and allow the work referred to therein to be carried out: Provided that, unless otherwise directed, any portion of the tramway which it may be necessary to remove in order to carry out such work shall be removed and reinstated by, or at the expense of, the Local Government, or the person or persons at whose instance the work is carried out: And provided also that the Promoters shall, if they are, at the time the Local Government either interferes with or stops the working of the tramway under the first paragraph of this clause, paying any rent to the Local Authority for the use of road, receive an abatement of such rent proportionate to the length of road over which and to the time during which the working of the tramway is stopped.

Explanation of all important variations in the amount of revenue.

* Increase is due to the general revision of assessments carried out on the 1st April 1908.

† The increase compared with the figures of the other two years is mainly due to the receipt of sale-proceeds of impounded cattle.

‡ The increase compared with the figures of the other two years is principally due to the sale-proceeds of trees and structures on the two newly-opened roads at Naihati (viz., Robertson Road and Girish Ghosal Road).

§ Government grants amounting to Rs. 1,254 (i.e., Rs. 1,000 towards the water-supply scheme + Rs. 254 for the purchase of instruments and furniture for the use of the Naihati Municipal Charitable Dispensary), being extraordinary receipts (i.e. of abnormal character) have been shown separately above in italic without being included here.

Closing balance	7,739	10,755	13,910
GRAND TOTAL	25,221	25,387	29,884

Explanation of all important variations in the amount of expenditure.

The amount of expenditure for the year 1907-08 includes the cost of general revision of assessments by a Government assessor, plus the expense of repairs to the Ferry Ghat Road at Kantalpara, hence the increase. The decrease in expenditure for the year 1908-09 is principally due to the exemption of audit and banking charges.

Gradual increase in the number of street-lamps from year to year to ensure safety of public life and property accounts for the steady growth of expenditure.

* The increase compared with the figures of the past two years is due to the construction of the two new roads at Naihati (viz., Robertson Road and Girish Ghosal Road.)

† Some pathsalas became defunct during 1907-08, hence the smallness of the figure.

GEORGE ROBERTSON,
Chairman, Naihati Municipality

No. 367 (third publication).—The following particulars, etc., relative to the above, issued by the British Admiralty (No. 1228 of 1909), are republished:—

Subject.—Astraea channel southward of Gough island, formerly known as Junk channel, is open during daylight to vessels wishing to use it. The undermentioned beacons and buoys have been established, and the directions given below should be followed:—

Position.—High Bar mark, lat. 31° 21½′ N., long. 121° 31¾′ E.

Description.—Pile beacon, surmounted by a ball, painted black.

2. Leading beacons established:

Position.—Situated at the south-eastern end of Gough island, with High Bar mark bearing N. 37° W., distant 14$\frac{4}{10}$ cables.

Description.—Pole beacon, surmounted by a triangle, point upwards, painted black.

(b) Rear beacon—

Position.—Situated at a distance of $\frac{9}{10}$ cables, S. 81° E., from front beacon.

Description.—Pole beacon, surmounted by a triangle, point downwards, painted black.

Remarks.—These two beacons in line, S. 81° E., indicate the centre of the Astraea channel.

3. Buoys established:

(a) Position.—Moored on the southern side of the channel, with Limit beacon bearing S. 24° W., distant $1\frac{1}{10}$ cables.

(b) Position.—Moored on the southern side of the channel, with Limit beacon bearing N. 73° W., distant $4\frac{1}{2}$ cables.

(c) Position.—Moored on the southern side of the channel, with Limit beacon bearing N. 77° W., distant $13\frac{1}{2}$ cables.

Description.—The above buoys are conical buoys, painted red, and numbered Nos. 1, 2, and 3, respectively.

4. Directions:

Vessels inward bound should, after having passed the Wusung inner bar signal station, keep $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables from the embankment on the left bank of the river and pass No. 1 buoy, moored off Limit beacon, on the starboard hand and at a distance of half a cable; continuing up river, pass No. 2 buoy on the same hand and at the same distance. When abreast No. 2 buoy, follow up the line of leading marks until abreast No. 3 buoy, where divert from the line and keep about half a cable from the Conservancy works on Gough island until having passed the upper end of such works, which is marked by a pile beacon, surmounted by a ball, painted black.

The difference between the depth of water in the Astraea channel and that on the Wusung inner bar, as indicated by the signals at the inner bar signal station, will be shown at the Wusung lighthouse and from the higher of the two leading marks on Gough island, as under:

Difference, in feet.	Symbols.
3	◆

When the depth of water in the Astraea channel is more than on the Wusung inner bar, symbols as above will be shown on the southern yard-arm, and when less, on the northern yard-arm; if the depth be the same as on the Wusung inner bar, no symbols will be shown.

In order to avoid accidents, vessels intending to pass through the Astraea channel must hoist a black ball at the fore truck when abreast the Wusung lighthouse on vessels inward bound, and when abreast Black point, or as soon as the signals at the Wusung inner bar signal station can be seen, on board vessels outward bound.

Caution.—Mariners are cautioned that they must go dead slow when passing the barges engaged in dropping "zinkstuks" in the Ship channel and when passing any other Conservancy works in course of construction.

When dredgers are at work in the Astraea channel, steam vessels should, when approaching them, sound their whistles and slow down, to give the dredgers time to slacken their moorings.

PARTICIPATION OF STUDENTS AND SCHOOLBOYS IN POLITICAL AGITATION.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT—POLITICAL.

Dated Darjeeling the 7th October 1909.

RESOLUTION No. 2126P.D.

BY Resolution No. 2493-P., dated the 31st July 1909, which was published a few days before the celebration of the anniversary of the Boycott, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor invited the special attention of the Heads of Colleges and Schools and of all parents and guardians, to the inexpediency of permitting students and schoolboys to take part in such gatherings. His Honour expressed the opinion that it was most undesirable that immature minds should be subjected to the excitement and disturbance which are inseparable from political agitation, and he appealed to all who are responsible for the education and behaviour of students and schoolboys to use their influence to induce them to abstain from taking part in, or from being present at, any form of political demonstration.

Sir Edward Baker desires to acknowledge the response which was made to this expression of his views, for the anniversary celebration of the Boycott was attended by a smaller number of students than on previous occasions. It is now again announced that political meetings will be held in connection with the anniversary of the Partition of Bengal, and His Honour desires again to invoke the attention of all responsible persons to the subject, and trusts that on this occasion also they will similarly use their influence with the students and schoolboys in whom they are interested. His Honour ventures to hope that further reflection during the interval since the previous resolution was published, may have produced a still more general and complete agreement with his views and that students will be even less in evidence at the forthcoming political meetings.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP IN BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 11th October 1909.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP IN BENGAL, 1909.

(On an average of the five years ending 1907-1908 the area under indigo in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 97 per cent., of the total area under indigo in British India.)

Explanatory.—With the exception of a few acres in Nadia and Jessore, indigo is grown only in Bihar districts and of these only Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga and Purnea have over 10,000 acres under this crop.

Character of the season.—The season has been unfavourable. Owing to want of rain in the beginning of the year the February sowings were unsuccessful. In March and April the season was better, but the long hot spell in May was very bad for the crop. When the rain came in June it was too plentiful in many districts and the heavy rains in the last two weeks of August made the situation worse.

Area.—The area is steadily decreasing. This year it is estimated at 107,700 acres which is 28,000 acres less than last year and nearly 40,000 acres less than 1907.

Outturn.—The outturn in Muzaffarpur is estimated at 88 per cent. of a normal crop and the outturn in Saran is estimated at 97 per cent., in Champaran and Darbhanga at 72 per cent., and Purnea only 23 per cent. The estimated outturn for North Bihar including Monghyr is 78 per cent., and for the other minor districts 44 per cent. The aggregate for the province is 70 per cent. The outturn for the Province is estimated at 20,179 factory maunds, a decrease of over 6,000 maunds from the figures of last year.

REPORT ON THE WORKING OF THE STEAM TRAWLER GOLDEN CROWN FOR THE QUARTER ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 1909.

The following report is published for general information.

F. W. Duke,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Calcutta,
The 9th October 1909.

During the quarter under review the Golden Crown made two exploratory voyages to the Bay of Bengal, both during the month of September. The weather during the quarter has been most unfavourable, but in spite of this two successful voyages were made and encouraging results obtained.

On the first occasion the trawler left for sea on September 6th, returning to Calcutta on the 16th and the second trip commenced on the 20th, terminating on October 2nd. As fishing operations on the second trip ceased on the 30th September, this voyage is naturally included in this report.

Details of Voyages.

After the pilot left at 9-10 p.m. on the 6th the vessel was put on a course S. W. by W. On the 7th owing to the heavy swell the Golden Crown was put for some time on half speed. At 1 p.m. the first haul was made off Konarak and touring W. S. W. trawling was carried on till Puri light bore N. by E. This day's trawling was in depths of about 24 fathoms. On the 8th still heading S. W. the trawl was shot in 50 fathoms water, but the result was not so good as on the previous day. Subsequently trawling was tried in 26 fathoms. Rough ground was met with later in the day and the net was damaged.

On the 9th fishing was tried off Gopalpur in depths of from 24 to 30 fathoms, and the results achieved tend to show that this is the most suitable depth in these localities. On this day and the following (10th) fishing was carried on under very adverse and trying circumstances, there being strong winds with much rain and a heavy sea.

On the 11th trawling went on still off the Ganjam district of the Madras Presidency in very unfavourable weather with heavy squals and much rain.

On the 12th trawling was tried between Gopalpur and Puri and off Puri weather again very bad.

On the 13th a heavy sea necessitated abandoning fishing operations from 2 to 11 a.m., after which fishing was tried 13 miles off the Black Pagoda (Konarak). On the 14th the conditions were again against fishing, but it was nevertheless persevered with. The 15th and 16th were occupied in the return journey.

On the Second Voyage the Golden Crown got under way early on the 20th, but owing to the heavy weather which prevailed she had to shelter in the river and the pilot did not leave until 1 p.m. on the 22nd. A course was set direct for Gopalpur and after a bad passage the trawl was shot off that place on the 23rd at 5-20 p.m. in 27 fathoms. A large saw fish was caught in the first haul, which badly damaged the net. This fish measured exclusive of the saw 23 feet 6 inches in length. Subsequently the trawl was shot off Burma.

On the 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th trawling was carried on again under very trying conditions in various depths and at various localities off Barura and Sonapur. Again the best depths were found to be from 24 to 30 fathoms and, although the ground is very rough and the net frequently torn, good catches were made. From the 30th to the 2nd October the passage home was made.

Four turtles were also caught on the first trip and one on the second. In spite of the very unfavourable weather that prevailed, over 418½ cwts. of edible fish were captured, that is, very nearly 21 tons, an average of 10·5 tons per voyage.

Only a part of this fish was brought to Calcutta for sale, but this is not due to the fact that the fish cannot be brought up fresh. As a matter of fact, larger catches have been brought up in a perfectly fresh condition.

As the object of the Golden Crown is the location of the fishing grounds and not to prove that commercial trawling in the Bay can be made a financial success, it is unnecessary to enter into details here as to the price obtained for the fish placed on the Calcutta markets. It will suffice to say that the Golden Crown fish finds a ready sale at good prices.

For comparison with previous quarters, the amount caught per day's fishing has been calculated.

On the first voyage there were 7½ days' actual fishing, and on the second voyage 6.

This gives an average of 31 cwts. per day's fishing, a result which is extremely creditable to Captain Mann and his European crew in view of the bad weather encountered and the fact that a large amount of time on each occasion was devoted to purely exploratory work.

The average catches per day's fishing of the Golden Crown may thus be summarised :—

Period from June to September 1908			6 cwts.
Quarter ending	December 31st	,,	21 ,,
Ditto	March 31st	1909	23 ,,
Ditto	June 30th	,,	33·4 ,,
Ditto	September 30th	,,	31 ,,

The progressive increase which was first noticeable in the quarter ending December 1908, has thus been well maintained and nowhere more marked than during the last two quarters when the weather has been most unfavourable for fishing.

For comparison with the above a statement is appended showing the average catch in cwts. per day's absence from port of first class English trawlers during 1907, that being the last year for which statistics are available :—

(Vide Annual Report of Proceedings under Act relating to Sea Fisheries for the year 1907. Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, London 1909.)

It is thus seen that the results obtained by the Golden Crown compare very favourably with first class steam trawlers in England. In making this comparison, it must however be borne in mind that the figures given for the Golden Crown are cwts. per day's fishing, whereas those for English trawlers are per day's absence from port. On the other hand, many of the English vessels are much larger than the Golden Crown and the are fitted with more powerful gear and theyare run on strictly commercial lines, whereas the object of the Golden Crown is exploration.

MONTHLY WEATHER AND CROP REPORT OF BENGAL FOR SEPTEMBER 1909.

Character of the season.—The rainfall during the month was general. The fall was much below the normal in North Bihar. In Lower Bengal it was in slight defect In Chota Nagpur and Orissa it was in excess of the normal, Angul, Balasore and Palamau excepted. The usual rainfall table is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Transplatation of paddy continued in some districts. Harvesting of the autumn crops was in progress throughout the month.

III. State of standing crops.—Aman paddy and sugarcane are doing well.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn of harvests.—Good harvests of autumn paddy and maize have been obtained in many districts. The outturn of all bhadoi crops for the Province as a whole is estimated at 100 per cent. of the normal by this Department, and if the weather continues favourable winter rice will yield more than the normal crop.

V. Damage to crops.—On lowlands in Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah and Murshidabad considerable damage was done both to winter rice and autumn crops by excessive rain and floods in the end of August. Injury by insect-pests was reported from Ranchi.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of cattle was on the whole fair. Cattle-diseases were reported from Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Nadia, Jessore, Khulna and from Bihar, Orissa and Chota Nagpur excepting Cuttack and Singhbhum.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—There was a temporary want in supply of fodder in parts of Burdwan owing to heavy floods. No other districts complained of insufficiency of fodder.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the 2nd fortnight of the month the price of common rice rose in 5 and fell in 21 districts. The price of makai has fallen considerably. The price of common rice has also fallen in expectation of a good harvest. Prices of staple food-grains are easier than in the corresponding period of last year.

IX. Condition of labouring classes and agricultural population.—The agricultural people are in satisfactory condition. There has been a good harvest of the autumn crops and the winter rice harvest is also very hopeful.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast ; d, drizzling rain ; g, dark gloomy ; p, passing temporary showers.

WATER-RATE RULES FOR TRIBENI CANAL.

The 21st September 1909.

No. 12.—Notification.—With reference to notification No. 5, dated 31st March 1908, which was published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 1st April 1908 at page 788, Part I, and in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 78 and 99 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal proposes to pass the following rules and to fix the undermentioned rates to be charged for water supplied from the Tribeni Canal, with effect from the 1st April 1910.

T. BUTLER,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal

General Conditions.

1. The revenue administration of the Tribeni Canal is vested in the Superintending Engineer of the Gandak Circle. The Divisional Canal Officer is responsible for maintaining the canal in an efficient condition, for the distribution of water to the lessees, and for the closing of the outlets in rotation when required; he is further responsible for the assessment of water rates.

2. The Collector of the district is responsible for the collection of water rates.

3. Except as provided in the Act and in these rules, no appeal shall lie from an order passed by a Canal Officer, but the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the order of the Divisional Canal Officer, and the Subdivisional Canal Officer or Divisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the orders of the Superintending Canal Officer, who shall exercise a general control over the proceedings of all Canal Officers.

4. In appeals to the Collector under section 91 of the Act other than those especially provided for in rule 14 the Collector may require the Superintending Engineer to state his opinion in writing, which opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings of the case.

On Applications.

5. Any person who requires a lease for water may apply to—

(a) the Sectional Officer, or

(b) the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

These preliminary applications must be made in writing and may be on plain paper. The person receiving them shall enter on the back any further data required.

On Leases and Permits.

6. Leases for the supply of water for any crop may be granted, on application, by the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

7. When a lease is granted, an agreement shall be taken in forms given in Appendices I, III and IV, and a "permit" shall be given to the lessee or lessees in forms given in Appendices II and V.

On Water Rates.

8. The following rates will be charged for water supplied, whether taken by lift or flow:—

		Rs.	A.
I.	For leases for kharif crops, 1st June to 15th November ...	2	0
II.	For leases for rabi crops, 1st November to end of February ...	1	4
III.	For each watering supplied between 1st March and 1st June...	0	12

On Demand Statements.

9. The statement of the amounts due for the water rates leviable under these rules shall be prepared under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer in such form as shall, from time to time, be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor. A parcha showing the area and amount assessed against each cultivator shall be sent to him through the cultivator's representative before the demand statement is sent to the Collector for realization. Persons charged under rule 21 shall be served as soon as the charge is made, by post or otherwise, with a statement showing the amounts charged.

10. The rates of water supplied on kharif leases shall be payable in two equal instalments falling due respectively on the 1st January and 1st February following, but all sums of Rs. 10 and under shall become due on the 1st January and be payable in one instalment.

The rates for water supplied on rabi leases shall fall due on the 1st April following.

The rates for water supplied between 1st March and 1st June shall fall due on the 1st July following.

11. Water rates imposed under rule 8 shall fall due as soon as the assessment is made and shall be realised at once.

12. Objections to the demand statements must be presented within thirty days of the date on which the parcha was received by the lambardar, but the period shall be extended where reasonable cause for delay can be established.

On Remissions.

13. Remission of water rates, either in whole or in part, shall be granted as follows:—

(i) By the Divisional Canal Officer for errors in assessment or rates.

(ii) By the Divisional Canal Officer for injury to a crop on a leased area caused by a deficiency in the supply of water.

In the latter case a written application must be made at least 20 days before the crop is cut.

14. Remissions on other grounds than the above require the sanction of Superintending Canal Officer.

15. In cases where sums due on account of water rates cannot be collected owing to the death, bankruptcy, or absconding of the defaulter, the amount which is not realisable may be written off as irrecoverable on the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer.

On Cultivators' Representatives.

16. In all applications and permits the names of one or more persons shall be entered as lambardar, who will be responsible for discharging the duties mentioned below:—

(i) Obtaining signatures to applications and certifying to the correctness of the name.

(ii) Attending and giving assistance in measuring land irrigated, or proposed to be irrigated.

(iii) Giving timely information to the Canal Officer or subordinate of any insufficiency in the supply of water and promptly reporting when the irrigation of the leased area, or any channel, is complete.

(iv) Supervising the distribution of the water supplied through an outlet amongst the persons entitled thereto and reporting any misuse of the same.

(v) Being present when complaints are investigated by a Canal Officer, or subordinate, and giving information required in connection with the same.

(vi) Receiving parchas from the Canal Officer and distributing the same amongst the persons named therein.

(vii) Reporting before the 15th of October all cases in which crops have been injured by deficiency or irregularity of supply in the kharif season so that these cases may be investigated before water rates are demanded.

(viii) Assisting the Collector by pointing out the residences of the persons assessed and identifying them.

17. The remuneration for performing the duties mentioned in the rule immediately preceding shall be two per cent. on the assessment (excluding fractions of a rupee) which shall be paid by the Canal Officer. The amount paid shall be calculated in rupees and annas only, pies being omitted.

18. The lambardar will be appointed by the Subdivisional Officer in consultation with the applicants for the lease, and must be a substantial person having a beneficial interest in part of the land to be irrigated. There is no objection to different lambardars being appointed to represent sections of the applicants or to two or more persons being jointly appointed as lambardars on behalf of the whole of the applicants. In case the Subdivisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of lambardar, he shall nominate a lambardar for approval by the Divisional Canal Officer.

19. The Divisional Canal Officer may, for reasons which appear to him to be sufficient and which must be recorded, remove a lambardar from his appointment, and in that case a new lambardar shall be appointed in the manner prescribed in the rule immediately preceding.

20. The fees to be paid to lambardars will only be disbursed if the duties specified have been satisfactorily performed. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees payable for reasons to be recorded in writing.

On Unauthorised Irrigation.

21. For the unauthorised use of canal water a rate of Rs. 5 per acre shall be charged; this rate may, however, be reduced at the discretion of the Divisional Canal Officer.

22. When it comes to the knowledge of the Subdivisional Canal Officer that canal water has been taken in an unauthorised manner, he shall hold a local investigation, and, if he considers that the land deriving benefit is liable to assessment, he shall serve a notice on the persons concerned, fixing a date for hearing objections. Any objections made shall be taken down and the whole record forwarded to the Divisional Canal Officer for disposal.

23. The Divisional Canal Officer after hearing any objection that may be raised shall, if he is of opinion that the land should be assessed, fix the rates allowed under rule 21 and return the record to the Subdivisional Canal Officer who shall then complete the assessment. Water rates shall not be charged where the unauthorised irrigation has occurred through the act, neglect or default of a Canal Officer or subordinate.

24. Applications for leases may be subsequently received from villages in which unauthorised irrigation has occurred, and these villages may be granted leases; in such cases the persons assessed under rule 21 shall also pay the water rates due in respect of the lease subsequently granted, provided that the total of these two rates shall not exceed the maximum rate chargeable under rule 21. In such cases of double assessment the Divisional Canal Officer may remit, in whole or in part, the rates assessed under rule 21.

On Penalties and Cancelling of Leases.

25. The Superintending Canal Officer may, with the concurrence of the Collector, direct the Divisional Canal Officer to cease to issue permits for the irrigation of lands in villages where there have been constant difficulties in realising water rates until all the arrears of water rates due are paid up; and also, if specially so ordered, until half the amount due under new applications is paid in advance. An order under this rule shall be in force for the time stated therein, which shall not exceed three years.

Miscellaneous.

26. No person shall, without the written permission of the Divisional or Subdivisional Canal Officer, pass or cause any animal or vehicle to pass along or across any of the works channels or banks of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, except by means of such bridges, fords and ferries and their approaches as have been provided for the purpose. Any person who after due warning breaks this rule may be proceeded against under section 93, clause (9) of the Bengal Irrigation Act III of 1876.

27. Unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operations of these rules, no officer employed on the canal shall have any interest in the distribution of water from it, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

28. Any Canal Officer may, in the case of pressing emergency, stop the supply of water to any canal or distributary. If such order is passed by an officer below the rank of a Divisional Canal Officer, it shall forthwith be reported to the Divisional Canal Officer, and if the stoppage exceeds five days in duration, to the Superintending Canal Officer.

29. No water shall be supplied nor shall any person be entitled to a supply of water until a permit signed by a Canal Officer authorised to sign a permit, has been signed and issued.

Dummy truck. 29. When the load in a truck projects to an unsafe extent beyond the end of the truck, an additional truck shall be attached, to act as a dummy.

Private engines and vehicles. 30. No engine or other vehicle, the property of a private owner, shall be allowed to enter upon the railway, except in accordance with special instructions.

Train lights. 31. At night, and in thick or foggy weather, other than ordinary cloud mist—

(1) no train shall be worked outside station limits unless it has—

(a) the head-lights prescribed by the Railway Administration, which is the "Wells" or other approved pattern;

(b) in the case of an engine with vehicles attached, at least one red tail-light, and in the case where a head-light is used which does not enable a driver to see his train, a white light shall be shewn on the last vehicle in such a position that it can be seen by the driver;

(c) in the case of the failure of the "Wells" or other special head-light which may be in use, the ordinary white head-light; and

(d) in the case of the failure of the "Wells" or other special head-light on a single engine, the ordinary white head-light with the addition of a red tail-lamp.

(2) no engine shall be employed in shunting within station limits or in a siding unless it has the head-lights and tail-lights prescribed by the Railway Administration.

Indicator that a train is complete. 32. In order to indicate by day to the staff that a train is complete, the last vehicle must be distinguished by affixing to the rear of it either a tail-board, a tail-lamp, a red flag or such other device as may be authorised by special instructions.

Limits of speed generally. 33. Every train must be run on each section of the line within the limits of speed sanctioned for that section by special instructions.

NOTE.—The sectional speed sanctioned shall be shown in the Working Time-table, a copy of which shall be supplied on issue to the Government Inspector.

Limit of speed through facing points. 34. No train shall be run through facing points at a speed exceeding 6 miles an hour, or such lower rate as may be prescribed by special instructions.

Care of facing points when train runs through stations without stopping. 35. When a train is to run, without stopping, through any station that is not interlocked, the Station Master of that station, or some railway servant appointed in this behalf by special instructions, must proceed to the facing points and satisfy himself that all facing points over which the train will pass are properly set and locked.

Working of ballast trains. 36. A ballast train may be worked only with the permission of the Station Master on each side and in accordance with special instructions.

(1) A Guard or Jamadar-Brakesman must accompany each ballast train running on the line.

(a) No person shall be appointed to be a Guard or Jamadar-Brakesman of a ballast train unless he has had the necessary experience as a Train Guard, or Jamadar-Brakesman.

(2) The Guard or other person in charge of a ballast train must, before giving the starting signal, require the coolies working with the train and riding in the open trucks to sit down.

(3) A ballast train may, in accordance with special instructions, be pushed by an engine either when running on the line or when being taken back into the station from which it was started.

Provided that the speed shall not exceed nine miles an hour, or such lower rate as may be prescribed by special instructions.

(4) No ballast train shall be stopped between stations to take up or put down material unless—

(a) the permission of the Station Master of the station on each side of the place of stopping has been obtained before the departure of the train from that station ; and

(b) the Guard or other person in charge of the train has, if practicable, arranged with the Station Master of each station as to place and time at which the next train is to be passed ;

(5) When granting any permission under clause (4) of this sub-rule, the Station Master must give such instructions to the Guard or other person in charge of the train as he may consider necessary, and must communicate with the Station Master of the other station concerned.

(6) When a ballast train is intended to run through from one station to another, without stopping, it must be treated as a special train.

(7) When ballast wagons are left on a siding outside station limits, Rule 109 must be complied with.

37. Before a ballast train is moved, the Engine Driver must give two clear whistles at an interval of half a minute, as a warning to the coolies that the train is about to move. Warning before moving a ballast train.

38. Shunting operations shall be controlled by Hand signals, or by verbal directions, as occasion may require. Control of shunting.

39. No vehicle shall be moved so as to foul or obstruct any running road unless the previous sanction of the Station Master has been obtained. Moving of vehicles so as to obstruct running road.

40. When any vehicle is being shunted on a steep gradient, the railway servant in charge of the operation must see that a sufficient number of brakes are put on, that sprags or hand scotches are used when necessary, and that all necessary precautions are taken to prevent the vehicle getting out of control. Shunting on steep gradient.

41. Whenever any hand shunting has to be done or any vehicles have to be detached at stations, or intermediate sidings, the scotch block at the lower end of the station or siding must be locked across the rail. When the operations are completed the scotch block must be carefully locked back clear of the line. The responsibility for seeing that the rule is carried out is determined in the following manner :— Use and locking of scotch blocks.

(a) At stations when the hand shunting or detaching of vehicles are not in connection with any train to which a Driver is attached, the responsibility rests with the Station Master.

(b) When the hand shunting or detaching of vehicles is in connection with a train to which a Driver is attached, both the Station Master and the Driver will be each held personally responsible for the due observance of the rules.

(c) At intermediate sidings the responsibility rests on the Driver alone.

(d) Scotch blocks have been fixed and each block has been supplied with a good padlock (similar to those supplied to switch-slide-clamps at intermediate sidings between stations, and the key for those scotch blocks is similar to those supplied for switch-slide-clamps.)

42. Fly shunting by engine or hand against vehicles containing passengers, explosives or livestock is prohibited. Fly shunting.

43. In case of accident to the line or to any train, or of failure or interruption of electric connections, trains must be worked between stations in accordance with special instructions. Working in case of accident or failure of electric connections.

(1) When telegraphic communication is interrupted between any two stations, and the usual "Line-clear" message cannot, in consequence, be obtained direct, every effort must be made to obtain it by communicating through the station next beyond or next back, but should the interruption be of such a nature as to render this impossible, the Station Master may allow a train to proceed under a caution order (green form), provided that no train is due in the opposite direction, and that the Station Master has reason to believe that the line in the direction in which the train is proceeding is clear. This caution order to proceed must state fully the reason why "line clear" has not been obtained, and must restrict the speed to 7 miles an hour.

(2) In total interruption of telegraphic communication on any section, trains booked out by the District Traffic Superintendent's Office running to the Working Timetable should be adhered to. Any special train advertised should only run as a following train, and this will be noted on the line clear of the preceding train.

(3) Signallers should note that when reporting interruptions, contacts, etc. the advice of such should be signalled to the addresses as follows :—

To A. S., Copy M. G. R., D. T. S., and I. T. M.

Scotch blocks to be approached with caution.

44. The localities where main line scotch blocks have been fixed should, at all times, be approached (by trains or trollies) with caution, in case the blocks may have been tampered with by outsiders, etc.

Trains stopped between stations by accident, failure or obstruction.

45. When a train is stopped between stations, the Driver in charge of the train must immediately ascertain the cause ; and, if the stoppage is other than incidental or authorised, and if he finds that through accident or for any other reason the train cannot proceed, the following action shall be taken, namely :—

(1) The Driver must immediately either himself go back or send a qualified person back, to protect the train to such a point that his signal can be seen at least 200 feet away by an approaching train, and must send a man to the station from where assistance can be best obtained and inform the Station Master of the circumstances.

(2) The person so going back must protect the train and plainly show his hand Danger signal to stop any approaching train, and must continue to shew the same until re-called.

(3) The Engine Driver must at once show a Danger signal to the front, and must also proceed to protect the train in front in the manner prescribed in clauses (1) and (2) either by going himself or by sending his Fireman or some other qualified person.

(4) When the line is blocked by slips, or any other cause, and it is necessary to return a train, the Driver must in such a case, provided there are no following trains, proceed very cautiously and have his train protected by a Brakesman on foot preceding the train by at least 100 yards with a red flag or lamp. In the case of following trains the Driver of the leading train must satisfy himself that all following trains have arrived and started back before moving himself.

(5) This rule does not apply to trains stopped within station limits or to incidental stoppages made under instructions from the Station Master of the preceding station.

Protection of trains approaching train stopped or portion of train left on line.

46. (1) If more than one train should approach a train or a portion of a train stopped or left on the line outside station limits, the Guard in charge of the train which last arrives, or, if there be no Guard, the Driver of such train, must see that the precautions prescribed by Rule 45 are taken for the protection of such train in the rear.

(2) When such precautions have been taken, all persons who went out to protect in the rear any train except such last train as aforesaid, may return to their own trains.

Sending advice of accident or break-down.

47. If the engine is for any reason unable to proceed, the Driver in charge of the train shall send advice to the nearest station, stating the nature and cause of the accident, and, if assistance has been asked for, he shall not allow the engin or any portion of his train to be moved until such assistance arrives, provided that if the train is subsequently able to move it may do so at walking pace, but not unless a man has been sent with hand signals to protect the train, such man keeping at least 100 yards in advance of the train, the other end of the train being protected in a similar manner.

Light engine stopped on line.

48. If any light engine should, while on the line outside station limits, be unable to proceed, the Engine Driver must see that the precautions prescribed by Rule 45 are taken for the protection of the engine, both in front and rear, employing the Fireman or some other competent person to assist him.

Train parting.

49. (1) If any portion of a train should, while in motion, become detached—

(a) the Engine Driver must use his judgment to keep the front portion in motion if possible until the rear portion has been brought to a stand, so as to avoid the chance of a collision between the two portions ; and

(b) the Guard or Brakesman in the rear portion must promptly apply their brakes and do all they can to prevent a collision with the front portion, or a run away back.

(2) As soon as the rear portion of the train has been brought to a stand, the Guard in charge of the train must protect that portion, in accordance with Rule 45, both in front and rear.

Portion of train left on line.

50. (1) When a train, stopped between stations, has to be divided in consequence of an accident or the inability of the engine to take the whole train forward, the Driver in charge of the train must, before uncoupling, put down the brakes, and must, if necessary, otherwise carefully secure the rear portion of the train to ensure its remaining stationary.

The rear vehicle must always be secured by a sprag or wedge independent of the brakes.

(2) When the said Driver has taken action under sub-rule (1), the Guard must immediately take steps to protect the rear portion of his train in accordance with Rule 45.

(3) At night or in thick or foggy weather as soon as the engine, whether with or without vehicles, is drawn forward, the said Guard must see that a light is shown on the front vehicle of the rear portion of the train.

(4) When the front portion of the train is taken forward, a brakesman must ride upon the last vehicle of the said front portion of the train until it reaches the next station; but no tail-lamp or tail-board shall be placed on it.

(5) On entering a station with the knowledge that the block section behind is obstructed, the first duty of the Driver, when the train consists of the engine only, is to instantly warn the Station Master on duty of this fact.

(6) When, under the written instructions referred to in sub-rule (2), the engine is to be brought back, the Guard in charge of the train must, until the arrival of the engine, continue to take the precautions prescribed in Rule 45, for the protection in rear of the portion of the train left on the line, and shall not permit a following train to move any of the vehicles under his charge.

(7) In case of fire, the first precaution to be taken is to secure the wheels of the last vehicle by a sprag or wedge independent of the brakes, and then detach the wagon or wagons on fire, spragging them laso.

51. Large trollies running unattached to trains are to be treated as "special" trains. Large passenger trollies on Line Clear

(a) When running the large trollies, all rules must be observed and 16 miles an hour should be the maximum speed on fairly straight lengths on the hill section. On curves, etc., speed should be reduced to a safe limit.

CHAPTER IV.

SYSTEMS OF WORKING.

52. (1) All trains working between stations must be worked on one or other of the following systems, namely :— Systems of working.

(a) Line Clear and Caution Message;

(b) Following Trains;

(c) Pilot Guard; or

(d) One Engine only.

(2) The systems sanctioned for use on the Darjeeling-Himalayan Railway are "Line Clear and Caution Message" or "Combined Line Clear and Pilot Guard system." These must always be used unless circumstances make it necessary to work under "Special instructions."

CLASS B STATIONS.—SINGLE LINES.

53. The line shall not be considered clear and permission to approach shall not be given, unless the whole of the last preceding train has arrived within the station section. Conditions under which permission to approach may be given.

54. Obstructing the line outside the facing points in the direction of an approaching train shall be permissible only— Obstruction in the face of an approaching train.

1st when a Danger signal is exhibited at a point outside the shunting board of the station in such a position as the signal can be seen by the Driver of an approaching train at least 200 feet away;

2nd and no shunting is performed outside the shunting board.

55. Shunting shall not be permitted unless a railway servant specially appointed in this behalf by the Station Master is in charge of the operation. Shunting

55A. If the block section into which the shunting is to take place is clear of an approaching train or if an approaching train has arrived outside the station, the Station Master has personally satisfied himself that the train has been brought to a dead stand, shunting may be performed. Shunting in the face of an approaching train.

THE LINE CLEAR AND CAUTION MESSAGE SYSTEM.

Essentials of the Line Clear and Caution Message system.

56. Where trains are worked on the Line Clear and Caution Message system, no train shall be allowed to leave a station, unless—

(a) permission to approach has been obtained by telegram from the station ahead, and

(b) the Engine Driver has been given a written authority to proceed certifying that the line on which he has to travel is either—

(i) absolutely clear of trains, or

(ii) occupied only by trains running in the same direction at time intervals.

Conditions under which permission to approach may be given.

57. Such permission to approach shall not be given unless, either—

(1) the line on which the train is to travel is absolutely clear of trains and all other known obstructions, and the whole of the preceding train has passed inside the station section, or

(2) the line on which the train is to travel is occupied only by a train running in advance in the same direction at an adequate interval of time.

Nature of the authority to proceed.

58. (1) In case (1) of Rule 57, the authority to proceed referred to in Rule 56 shall be a Line Clear Certificate stating that the line is clear.

(2) In case (2) of Rule 57, the said authority to proceed shall be a Caution Certificate stating—

(a) that the line is occupied only by trains running in advance in the same direction at time intervals; and

(b) the time of the departure of the said train, and the place at which it will next stop.

The Line Clear Certificate referred to in General Rule 58 is a copy of the telegraphic message from one station to another, stating that the line between the two stations is or will be (when certain conditions specified in the message have been fulfilled) clear of all trains and of all other known impediments for the passage of a particular train. The telegraphic message must only be despatched as a reply to an enquiry received from the station from which a train is to start.

Restrictions on grant of authority to proceed.

59. An authority to proceed shall not be granted at any station in case (2) of Rule 57, unless the preceding train has been given a clear 5 minutes start in daylight or 15 minutes after dark.

Delivery of authority to proceed to Engine Driver or Guard.

60. (1) Every authority to proceed as defined in Rule 58 shall be delivered by the Station Master, or by some railway servant appointed in this behalf, to the Engine Driver.

(2) When the train is running through the station without stopping, an authority to proceed should be delivered to both the Driver and the Guard.

(3) An authority to proceed shall not be handed to the Engine Driver under sub-rule (1)—

(i) until the train is nearly ready to start; or

(ii) if the train is waiting to pass another train, until the whole of the latter train has come in and is clear of the running road for the former train.

Responsibilities as to proper preparation of authority to proceed.

61. (1) When an authority to proceed is delivered to the Engine Driver under clause (1) of Rule 60, the Station Master must see—

(a) that it is properly filled up;

(b) that the date and time of the receipt of the line clear or caution telegram upon which it is based are noted thereon;

(c) that it applies to the particular train to which such telegram refers;

(d) that it is signed in full and in ink; and

(e) that the private number is duly entered.

(2) When an authority to proceed is delivered to the Driver in charge of the train under clause (1) of Rule 60, he must, before starting, satisfy himself on the several points mentioned in sub-rule (1) of this rule.

(3) Whether the train stops or runs through a station, the Engine Driver must satisfy himself, so far as he may be able to do so, on the several points mentioned in sub-rule (1) of this rule, and if he finds that any of them are not complied with, he must not proceed with his train until the mistake or the omission is rectified.

THE FOLLOWING TRAINS SYSTEM.

Essentials of the Following Trains system.

62. Where trains are worked on the Following Trains system, they may be despatched from one station to the next, following each other in succession in the same direction on the same line at intervals of 5 minutes, until it has been mutually arranged by telegraph between the Station Masters at either end of the section that such succession is to cease.

63. Trains shall not be worked on the Following Trains system unless the Station Master of the station ahead has telegraphed his readiness to receive the trains, and has given his assurance that no train will be allowed to leave his station for the station from which the Following Trains are to be despatched until the latter have all arrived at his station, and until he has received permission to despatch trains in the opposite direction.

Condition precedent to working of trains on the Following Trains system.

64. When the Following Trains system is adopted, the following conditions must be observed, namely—

Conditions to be observed in working trains.

(a) No train shall be allowed to start until the Engine Driver has been given a written authority to proceed and a written acknowledgment thereof has been obtained from him, the train being stopped for the purpose, if not booked to stop ;

(b) the authority to proceed shall state the time of the actual departure of the preceding train, the place at which it is next to stop ;

(c) the Engine Driver of each preceding train must be informed of the fact that a train will follow, and of the probable period which will elapse before the following train will be allowed to start ;

(d) a train shall not be allowed to follow another from a station unless there has elapsed, since the departure of the previous train, an interval of not less than 5 minutes in daylight or after dusk 15 minutes ;

(e) all the trains shall be timed to run at the same speed, and such speed shall not exceed 12 miles on the hill, and 16 miles on the Terai Station an hour, except under special instructions ,

(f) the actual time of the departure of each train must at once be intimated by telegraph to the station ahead, and the actual time of arrival of each train must at once be intimated to the station in rear.

65. Rules 54 to 55A and 60 and 61 shall apply to working on the Following Trains system.

Application of certain rules.

66. When it is intended that no more following trains shall be despatched in the same direction, the Station Master shall intimate such intention by telegraph to the station ahead, after which no more trains in either direction may be despatched between the two stations until the last train has arrived at the station ahead and the line has been cleared between the two stations.

Cessation of working on the Following Trains system.

THE PILOT GUARD SYSTEM

67. Where trains are worked on the Pilot Guard system—

Essentials of the Pilot Guard system.

(a) a railway servant (hereinafter called a Pilot Guard) must be specially deputed to pilot trains ; and

(b) no train shall be allowed to leave a station except under the personal authority to pilot trains ; and

WORKING OF TRAINS ON THE "COMBINED LINE CLEAR AND PILOT GUARD SYSTEM."

67A. This system will only be used when trains are booked to cross at intermediate stations where there is no telegraph office.

Application of system.

67B. Trains may not follow one another in the same direction between stations, except subject to the conditions prescribed in this Chapter, in addition to those prescribed in Rules 56 and 57.

Following Trains.

68. The Pilot Guard must be distinguished by a red badge.

Pilot Guard's dress or badge.

(a) No train shall be started from a station unless the Driver has in his possession a Line Clear Certificate or Caution Certificate, and unless the Driver sees that the train is accompanied by, or that the signal for starting is given personally by the Pilot Guard wearing the badge prescribed by Rule 68.

(b) Every train must come to a dead stop where a Pilot Guard has to be picked up or let down.

69. Except as herein provided, the Pilot Guard must accompany every train, and must in all cases ride on the engine :

Trains to be accompanied or personally started by Pilot Guard.

Provided that, when it is necessary to start two trains from a station following one another under Rule 64, the Pilot Guard shall accompany the last train and shall personally give the signal for starting the prior train.

Pilot Guard's ticket.

70. (1) When the Pilot Guard does not accompany any train, he shall, before giving the signal for starting, deliver to the Driver a Pilot Guard's ticket (on a printed form) properly filled up and signed.

(2) Every such ticket shall apply only to the single journey to the station named on it.

(3) All the "Line Clear and Caution Message" given under these rules will have printed upon them the word "Pilot" in large red letters on the white form and black letters on the red form.

(4) All Pilot Guard's tickets will be sent in by the Drivers attached to his journal.

EXAMPLES—

(a) If Mahanudy asks Kurseong, "line clear" for the Up Mail, and Kurseong, to avoid detention to a Down train, gives "line clear" to Giddapahar Siding only, the Pilot Guard at Mahanudy, under the instructions of the Station Master, must start and accompany the Up Mail, having in his possession a written order on "line clear" (Form T5) for the train coming from the opposite direction, which should be worded thus :—"On arrival of No. 5 Up Mail at Giddapahar Siding, line will be clear for No. 4 Down Goods" and so on. Kurseong will in a similar way send a Pilot or 4 Down with line clear for 5 Up from G. D. siding to Kurseong.

(b) If Ghoom wishes to send forward a train with extra wagons for Rungbool Siding to be followed by the Down Mail and Sonada wishes to despatch an Up train as far as 42¾ mile siding, the procedure will be as follows :—

Ghoom will ask Sonada for return line clear to Rungbool Siding, and on arrival of Down Mail at Rungbool Siding the engine would return to Ghoom. The Pilot with caution line clear for Up train proceeds to 42¾ mile siding by Down Mail, and return to Ghoom by the Up train from 42¾ mile siding.

For two Up trains and one Down train—

(c) The Pilot Guard leaving Ghoom proceeds by 30 Down with two line clear messages, and on arrival at Rungbool Siding he hands the one for 7 Up to the Driver and then goes to 42¾ mile siding and hands the line clear to Driver of No. 5 Up and returns to Ghoom by that train.

(d) Sonada gives No. 7 Up line clear as far as Rungbool Siding only and No. 5 Up as far as 42¾ mile siding only ; one Pilot Guard accompanies the first train with line clear for No. 30 Down train from Rungbool Siding to 42¾ mile siding, the latter train with the 2nd Pilot with line clear from 42¾ mile siding to Sonada.

In the "line clear" given by Ghoom to No. 5 Up from 42¾ mile siding the Driver is informed to follow No. 7 Up cautiously.

The same procedure is adopted for two Down trains and one Up train.

THE ONE ENGINE ONLY SYSTEM.

Essentials of the One Engine only system.

71. Where trains are worked on the One Engine only system only one engine in steam, or two or more engines coupled together, shall be allowed on the line at one and the same time.

Application of the One Engine only system.

72. Trains may be worked on the One Engine only system, only on short branch railways having a single line of rails.

Procedure in case of accident.

73. (1) If a train becomes disabled and requires assistance, or if an accident occurs which renders it impossible for the engine (or, if two or more engines are coupled together, for either or both of such engines) to proceed, the Engine Driver must keep the engine or engines stationary, the procedure of Rule 45 must be carried out.

(2) Such Station Master may then allow another engine or engines to enter the line.

(3) Such other engine must be accompanied by the man deputed from the disabled train, who must explain to the Engine Driver where, and under what circumstances the disabled train is situated.

(4) Such Driver shall be responsible for the safe and proper working of the line until each engine has left it and it is again clear.

CHAPTER V.

USE OF ELECTRICAL INSTRUMENTS ON SINGLE LINES.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

74. This Chapter applies only to working on any of the following systems, namely :— Application of Chapter.

(a) Line Clear and Caution Message.

(b) Following Trains.

75. Trains can only be worked by means of electric speaking instruments, except under exceptional circumstances which will be arranged for by "Special Instructions." Means of working.

76. Electric speaking instruments must be provided at every station except Class D. stations. These instruments must be off a type approved by the Government Inspector. Provision of instruments.

77. (1) Each signal received must be acknowledged by the sending of its authorised acknowledgment. Acknowledgment of signals.

(2) No signal shall be acknowledged until it is clearly understood.

(3) A signal shall not be considered to be complete until it is acknowledged.

(4) Should the station to which a signal is sent not reply, the signal must be repeated at intervals of not less than twenty seconds until the reply is received.

78. In order to ascertain whether the station in advance is in a position to give a permission to approach to the station in rear, and in order to describe the train, the Is Line Clear signal must be sent to the station in advance. The Line Clear signal when to be sent.

79. (1) All messages despatched in connection with the working of trains, and all written authorities to proceed, shall be written on forms specially provided for the purpose by the Railway Administration. Forms for messages and authorities to proceed and who to despatch.

(2) Such forms shall be bound up in books and kept at each station by the Station Master or by some railway servant appointed in this behalf by special instructions.

(3) Each of such books in use at a station shall contain a certificate signed by the person by whom the book is kept, showing the number of pages contained therein.

(4) The pages of each such book shall be progressively numbered in print ; and when any telegram, certificate or permission written on any page is cancelled, the whole page, together with the counterfoil, must be marked as cancelled, and the page must be carefully preserved by doubling it on the counterfoil.

(5) Besides the progressive number and the serial number for the day every sent line clear or caution message must be allotted a private number by the Station Master or Signaller-in-charge on duty who signs the entry in the train message book.

(6) The private number will form part of the body of the line clear or caution message, and will be signalled as the last word in it. It must be duly recorded in the train message book of the station to which the line clear or caution message is signalled.

(7) Private numbers will not be given to any train messages other than line clear or caution messages.

(8) A private number allotted to a line clear or caution message subsequently cancelled, must not be reallotted : a fresh number must be given to each despatched line clear or caution message, whether cancelled or not.

(9) The object of the private number is to prevent the record, at a station despatching a train, of a line clear or caution message as received which has not been actually signalled.

(10) No line clear or caution message must be signalled, and no line clear or caution message must be received as valid without a private number, as the last word in the body of the message.

(11) The private number sheets are supplied by the District Traffic Superintendent, and are used in the following manner.

One sheet only must be in use at a time. Numbers must be allotted to the successive despatched line clear or caution message in the order in which the numbers are printed in the sheet in use ; and each number, as allotted, must be marked off with a line diagonally through it.

The numbers are printed in groups of five, and any numbers of a group of five, which have not been allotted up to 24 hours must be cut through vertically. The next day's date must then be written at the head of the next group of five, and each number be scored off diagonally, as used, during the next 24 hours, and so on till the sheet is exhausted.

The numbers will be used in their consecutive order irrespective of the direction in which the trains are running.

(12) The number sheets must be kept in the Station Master's or Signaller-in-charge's possession under lock and key when not actually in use, no other person being allowed to see or have access to it. Each sheet as exhausted must be sent in sealed envelope to the District Traffic Superintendent, when it will be replaced by another.

(13) The sheets will be issued by the District Traffic Superintendent. A supply sufficient for one month (each sheet containing 200 figures) will be given to each Station Master and the sheets issued to each station will be numbered by the District Traffic Superintendent in the order in which he intends them to be used.

(14) When a sheet is being taken into use, the date must be entered above the left hand column, subsequent dates being entered in the place between the groups of five, as laid down in paragraph (11).

(15) The District Traffic Superintendent when visiting stations will be careful to see that the sheets are duly used ; that numbers are scored off in proper order as allotted ; and that the date is entered before the first number for the day.

(16) Private numbers should be written out as words, not as numerals and should be signalled as words.

(17) When asking and giving line clear for a pilot or light engine, the number of the engine must always be given in the message.

Distinction of messages.

80. (1) Every message despatched in connection with the working of a train must distinctly describe the train to which it relates.

(2) For every train a separate inquiry and reply must be sent.

(3) Enquiry for line clear should be despatched on receipt of the out report from the station in rear. In no case must a line clear enquiry be despatched from a station prior to the receipt of the out report, except at terminal stations or under special working instructions .

Writing and signing of messages and authorities to proceed.

81. (1) All messages despatched in connection with the working of trains, and all written authorities to proceed , shall be written up in ink or with some other indelible substance, and shall be signed by the person authorised to despatch or issue the same.

(2) No message or authority to proceed shall be written out, either in full or in part, or signed, until necessary.

(3) No message shall be despatched, and no certificate or written permission shall be issued, except by the Station Master or by some railway servant appointed in this behalf by the authorised officer.

Completion of messages.

NOTE TO RULE 105 (1) :—

Officers of the railway should read Government of India, P. W. D. Department, Circular No. III Railway Traffic of the 14th February 1902, with its enclosures Nos. 1 and 2 and accompaniment.

1. Every railway servant is required to report to the nearest Station Master, with as little delay as possible, any accidents on the railway which may come to his notice. Where there is no Station Master, the report must be made to the railway servant in charge of the section of the railway in which the accident has occurred.

2. Any Station Master, who may receive a report that an accident has occurred on the railway, must immediately advise the persons mentioned in paragraph 6 (see below), according to the clause under which the accident may come. In order to reduce the length of the telegraphic advices sent to the officers named on the different clauses of paragraph 6, Station Masters should address such messages as follows :—

The spaces provided in Form L. T. 1 for "From (Station)" and "From (Person)" should be filled in, as usual, with the code initials of the station from which the telegram is sent, and the code letters (S. M.) denoting the despatching Station Master. The space provided for "To (Station)" should be filled in with the code initials of those stations at which the different officers reside, who are required to be advised in accordance with paragraph 6. The space provided for "To (Person)" should be filled in with the code letters "Acdt" denoting accident, followed by the class letter, and the number of the sub-para. under which the accident should be classified.

On receipt of such a message, it would be the duty of the signallers to refer immediately to the class the message refers to, for the list of officers to whom copies should be sent, and to deliver to each a copy of the message in question accordingly.

3. The message itself should be written with care and be brief. Before telegraphing, the Station Master should endeavour to obtain the fullest possible particulars, and should carefully classify the message according to the information thus received. For example, in the case of a dead body found on the line, the question whether the death was due to the individual being run over by a train or engine or to natural or other causes should, if possible, be determined, before the accident report is telegraphed. When full particulars cannot be obtained without undue delay, the words, "cause of death unknown" should be added to the message. In reporting derailments or collisions, the Station Master should make it quite clear, if any of the vehicles derailed or in collision were occupied by passengers, or were attached at the time of being derailed or in collision, to a train carrying passengers. Goods vehicles detached from a mixed train and subsequently derailed or in collision during shunting should not be telegraphed as forming part of such mixed train, but reported by wire as derailed or in collision during shunting, as the case may be. Similarly, an engine derailed or in collision while detached from its train should not be telegraphed as forming part of such train but simply as "Engine number."

The telegram should state what the detention to traffic is likely to be, as well as what assistance is required, if any ; also if the transhipment of the passengers is necessary and what number of carriages is required. In cases of damage to road or rolling-stock, the wording of the telegram should be precise ; such terms as wrecked, smashed or destroyed, should be avoided. The probable time it will take to put things right should also be stated, in order that traffic may be worked accordingly. See also the specific instructions hereinafter given regarding the details to be supplied in cases of accidents of the various kinds.

4. Every railway servant informing a Station Master of an accident or obstruction should in the first instance sign the telegram to "All concerned" as a voucher for its correctness, but it is not necessary that the message when signalled should bear the name or designation of any sender besides the Station Master.

5. Guards, Permanent-way Inspectors and Drivers should not as a rule telegraph to "All concerned," but they may send separate messages to the officers of their own Branches, if they consider it necessary to do so.

6. Telegraphic reports of accidents.

Guard of the disabled train must jointly sign a memorandum to the effect that another engine is required, and on receipt of this memorandum the Station Master will immediately telegraph for the assistance required. After such a memorandum has been signed by the Guard and Driver, the engine of the disabled train must, on no account, be moved; and it must be protected according to rules.

14. The assistance of a second engine is on no account to be asked for by any Station Master, unless he has in his possession a memorandum signed by the Guard and Driver, stating that such assistance is required; and no engine is on any account to be sent to the assistance of a disabled train, between stations, except on the requisition of the Station Master responsible for reporting the accident.

109. No railway servant shall leave any vehicle in a siding outside station limits, unless the vehicle is clear of all running roads and, except under special instructions, unless the wheels thereof are properly secured, and the scotch block, where provided, properly locked.

Obstruction of line.

110. No railway servant shall commence any loading, shunting or other operation by which any running road may be fouled or obstructed, without obtaining the previous sanction of the Station Master, or of some railway servant appointed in this behalf by special instructions, who must see that all necessary steps are taken for the protection of traffic while such operation is being carried on.

Any of the staff obstructing the Paymaster in reference to payment of such debits, will be severely dealt with. They can however, if they wish, submit, after payment, an appeal, against such deductions through the heads of their Branches, and this will have the attention of the General Manager in due course.

NOTE TO RULE 116 :—

Rates and Conditions.

For all Fares, Rates and Conditions references should be made to the Current Joint Coaching and Goods Tariff published by the E. B. S. Railway, a copy of which should be with every Station Master.

Alterations to Appendices A & B of the General Rules.

References concerning alterations to the Appendices A and B of the General Rules of the Darjeeling-Himalayan Railway published in 1908 will be found in the Joint Goods Tariff under the heading "Rules for the Conveyance of Dangerous goods."

Instructions regarding Transmission of Station Earnings to Darjeeling.

1. All cash bags with station earnings must be deposited in the travelling cash safe fitted in the Guard's van of the up mail train. The Guard will sign a certificate in the attached form (No. S. N. 62). Each Station Master will be furnished with a book containing these forms. The signature of the Guard must invariably be obtained in ink. Cashier will also grant a certificate to the Station Master, Darjeeling, in the accompanying form (No. S. N. 62 A). This latter form will also be countersigned by the traffic cash witness.

2. The cash will arrive at Darjeeling station in the travelling cash safe every day by the up mail train. The Traffic Branch will be responsible for the money until taken over by the Cashier.

3. After the arrival of the mail train every day, the Station Master of Darjeeling will see that the safe is removed from the Guard's van to the Cash Office, where it will be opened by the Cashier in the presence of a cash witness to be furnished by the Traffic Branch.

4. If any cash bag be found missing in the cash safe, the Cashier and the cash witness will immediately wire jointly to the Station Master who has not sent the bag, forwarding a copy of the message to the General Manager and also to the District Traffic Superintendent.

5. Should any of the bags be found torn or the locks or seals damaged, the Cashier and the traffic cash witness will have the bag examined carefully and note the circumstances and open such bag first, and if after opening, the contents do not agree with the remittance note, a joint telegram from the Cashier and the traffic cash witness should be sent to the forwarding Station Master. In cases of serious discrepancies, copies of such messages should be given to the General Manager and to the District Traffic Superintendent for necessary action.

6. After the cash of one station is taken by the Cashier, the remittance note and the receipt will be initialled by the traffic cash witness. All corrections will also have to be initialled by the latter.

Instructions regarding "Railway or Owner's Risk."

I.—Staff concerned are required to note that the remark "at Railway Risk" or "at Owner's Risk" must be stamped on all invoices.

In case of failure to enter the remark "at Railway Risk" or "at Owner's Risk" on invoices, the receiving stations shall wire to the forwarding station enquiring whether the consignment is booked "at Owner's Risk" or "at Railway Risk" and the receiving station will be held responsible for the collection of the correct charges.

Instructions regarding irrecoverable undercharges.

II.—When undercharges are irrecoverable, in the absence of special agreement the following rules shall apply :—

In the case of goods invoiced "To pay," the forwarding station shall be responsible that the correct charges are entered on the invoice for the proportion due to the forwarding railway; the receiving station shall be responsible for the proportion due to the receiving railway.

For the charges due to any intermediate railway or railways, if incorrect charges have been entered on the invoice and the error remains undetected before delivery, both the forwarding railway and the railway which effects the delivery shall be responsible for the charge due to intermediate railways in equal division : in all other cases the railway which effects the delivery and collects the charges shall be responsible.

No shortage certificates to be issued when consignments are covered by Risk Notes.

All Station Masters, Goods and Booking Clerks should note that no shortage certificates for consignments, which are covered by Risk Note should be issued, and if any one is found to do so, he will do it solely at his own risk as the Company will not admit liability for such shortage or damage.

Filling in of Risk Note Forms.

Care should be taken to see that the blank space and other particulars provided in the Risk Note Forms should be properly filled in by consignors of goods before they are accepted by the staff concerned, and as incomplete documents will not help this and the connected railways in a court of law, the staff concerned are therefore instructed that under no circumstances must they accept incomplete Risk Note Forms from the senders of goods and parcels. The Station Master or Clerks neglecting the above will be held responsible for any loss entailed upon the railway.

Filling in of Receipt Notes.

Station Masters, Goods Clerks and other staff concerned are instructed that in issuing Receipt Notes to senders or consignors of goods, both in local and through booking, they must invariably fill in the column which is provided in the same. In the case of through consignments proportions due to each line must be shewn separately in the Receipt Notes.

Quoting of Rates to the public.

All endeavours must be made by the staff to quote correct rates to the public. Any infringement of this order will be seriously taken up.

Charges for telegrams for rebooking parcels or goods, etc.

Station Masters, Goods and Booking Clerks and others concerned should note that whenever it is necessary to make use of the wire for rebooking a consignment or parcel at the request of the consignor or consignee (as the case may be) to the forwarding or to some other station, or for tracing parcels or goods, etc., which have been lost or missing, but not booked in the usual way, they must realise beforehand the cost of the telegrams required to be sent in his behalf, and send them as paid private messages and not on railway service.

The attention of the staff concerned is also drawn to the following rules which are at present in force :—

"When telegrams are required to be sent enquiring for, or giving directions regarding, luggage or property which has been left in any of the railways' waiting-rooms or trains, the cost of forwarding the message must be borne by the owner of the property."

Survey of tea chest before accepting for carriage.

Consignees of tea chests demand a survey of the contents of every chest of tea forming a consignment in cases where some of them only bear signs of wet or damage.

Station Masters and Goods Clerks of forwarding stations should carefully examine each consignment before granting a receipt and should note both on the receipt and invoice the numbers of chests on which there is any outward trace of damage, so that the responsibility of this and connected railways may thus be minimized.

Carriage of birds and small animals in crates.

1. On the Darjeeling-Himalayan Railway no consignments of birds, small animals, etc., in cages or baskets will be accepted for despatch unless due provision is made by the sender for their food and water, and all consignments in which birds, etc., are overcrowded will be refused.

2. Baskets measuring 4 ft. by 2 ft. by 1 ft. must not contain more than 20 fowls or 15 ducks. Consignments for distances of 200 miles and over will not be received unless they are accompanied by an attendant who will feed and water the birds during the journey.

NOTE.—All baskets or crates containing birds, etc., should be made sufficiently strong so as to be stacked one above the other without damaging the lower crates.

Instructions regarding submission of Coaching Returns and Collected tickets and Pass Returns.

All Station Masters, Guards, Booking Clerks, Ticket Checkers and other staff concerned should note that statements of coaching traffic and of collected tickets and passes (in Forms Nos. S. N. 8 and S. N. 28 respectively) will have to be prepared and submitted separately, viz., the former by the Station Masters and Booking Clerks, on the day following the sale of the tickets, and the latter by the Ticket Checkers. 174. No Engine Driver shall take his engine on or across any running road until he has obtained the permission of the Station Master and has satisfied himself that the correct signals have been shown.

Engine Driver not to start without Guard's signal.

175. The Engine Driver shall not start from a station an engine with vehicles attached until the Guard in charge of the train has given the signal to start, or in the case of there being no Guard, until he has satisfied himself that the train is properly equipped as in rules 24 and 146 and that the Jemadar-Brakesman has given the prescribed signal for starting.

190. When two or more engines are attached to a train, the Driver of the leading engine shall be responsible for observing signals, and the Driver of the other engine or engines shall watch for and take signals from the Driver of the leading engine.

194. When a Driver sees a banner or red flag placed between or across the rails by day or red lamp by night, he must immediately bring his train to a stand, and may then—

(a) if it is day, and he has a clear view of the road—proceed very cautiously at such reduced speed as will enable him to stop short of any Danger signal or obstruction; or

(b) if it is day, and he has not a clear view of the road, or if it is night, or if the weather is thick or foggy—proceed very cautiously on hand signals given by the Guard in charge of the train (or the Fireman, if there is no Guard), who must walk ahead of the engine for this purpose; and

(c) if within a distance of half a mile from the point where the emergency flags or lamps were placed he meets no further signals—resume ordinary speed.

Duties of r in case of accident, failure, or obstruction.

195. If any of the circumstances mentioned or referred to in rule 45 and observed by the Driver or any Guard involve danger to the traffic, then—

(a) if it is necessary for the safety of the traffic to do so, the Driver must stop the train as soon as practicable, and protect his train as noted in rule 45.

Precautions when view of signal is obstructed.

196. If, in consequence of a fog or storm or for any other reason, the view of signals is obstructed, the Engine Driver must take every possible precaution, especially when approaching a station or junction so as to have the train well under control.

(2) The Jemadar-Brakesman or Guard shall not signal to back the train till the Pointsman at the Lower Points on the upward or upper points on the downward journey, has given him an alright signal by shewing a green flag by day or green light by night.

(3) The Pointsman at the near end shall not, on any consideration, permit a train to take the Reverse till a signal has been received from the pointsman at the far end. The signal shall be shewing a red flag or light in such a position as the other Pointsman can see, and after shewing the same and observing the other Pointsman has shewn the same, each Pointsman should shew a green flag by day or green light by night. On this it will be sufficient for the Pointsman at the near end to signal the train to back into the Reverse.

(4) Each Pointsman is answerable for the safe working of his points, and should keep them clear; and any defect noticed should be immediately reported to the nearest gang mistree or to the Permanent-way Inspector when he passes. If from any unforeseen cause one of the Pointsmen is not at his post, the Driver can lend a Brakesman who shall run up the Reverse or down as the case may be, and after satisfying himself that the line is clear, can signal to the train by hand during day-light or waving a green light at night.

(3) Large passenger or motor trollies will work under the same rules and conditions as a train and the responsibility of the officer in charge is the same as that laid down for Guards and Drivers of trains.

Lorries.

Conditions under which a Lorry can be run.

229. (1) No Lorry may be placed on the line except by a railway servant appointed to do so by special instructions.

(2) Such railway servant shall accompany the lorry, and shall be responsible for its proper protection and for its being used in accordance with the following regulations :—

(a) A lorry shall ordinarily be run only by day and when the weather is sufficiently clear for a signal to be seen, and shall show a red flag.

(b) Before a lorry is placed on the line, whether loaded or empty, the line shall be blocked between the stations it is proposed to work,—provided it is possible to do so without interfering with the working of trains. In every case where a trolly is working at night, the line must be blocked, and hand lamps showing red instead of flags used.

(c) When the line has not been so blocked and a lorry, whether loaded or empty, is placed on the line, intimation must be given to the nearest Station Master in writing, stating what work will be done on the line, and at what mile and nearest bridge the lorry is likely to be met with. The Station Master must either before the lorry leaves his station, or immediately on receipt of the message that the lorry is to work, caution the next station on the section where the lorry is to work, and give permission to the railway servant in charge to work, in writing. (d) It is the duty of the railway servant in charge to remove it ten minutes before the known arrival of any train.

(e) A lorry so working shall be preceded and followed at a distance of not less than 300 feet with men holding danger flags walking inside the track.

(f) When the lorry is stopped for loading or unloading between stations, a red flag shall be fixed between or across the rails at a distance of not less than 300 feet ahead on either side.

(g) The above precautions must be taken till the lorry is removed from the line, and a message from the railway servant in charge has been received by the men following or preceding that it has so been removed and not till then can the danger signals be removed.

(3) A lorry when not in use must be placed 5 feet clear of the line, and the wheels must be secured with a chain and padlock.

(4) No lorry can be attached to any train.

Small trollies.

(6) No one, excepting an employé of the Company, shall be allowed to travel by trolly without special authority. It is the duty of Station Masters to report any infringement of this rule.

(7) Trollies must be returned to their destination, as far as possible, by goods trains, when the load allows.

(8) When a trolly is being hauled up-hill, the trolly man in charge must precede it 100 yards with a red flag.

(9) Every effort must be made to avoid attaching trollies to passenger or other trains over the length of line upon which there are reversing stations, viz., between the 16th mile and the 24th mile, so that cutting off and running back the trollies up the reverses immediately in front of the passenger train may be avoided.

(10) The attaching of any trolly to a special passenger train is strictly prohibited.

(11) All trollies must be removed some 10 feet clear of the line and their wheels secured with chains and padlocks when not in use.

(12) No trollies shall run at night except when absolutely unavoidable, in this case they must show a red tail light and a conspicuous head light.

13. The materials to be used in distilling country spirits shall only be such as are approved by the Commissioner. All materials used must be of good quality and no ingredients noxious to health shall be added to the spirit intended for human consumption.

14. Before the license to work the distillery is granted by the Collector the distiller shall execute a bond in the prescribed form pledging the premises, stills, all apparatus and utensils, employed in the manufacture of alcohol, for the due discharge of all payments which may become due to Government. In lieu of executing such a bond the distiller may deposit Government promissory notes of such value as the Commissioner may direct.

15 The distiller shall keep accurate and regular daily accounts showing (1) the quantity and description of materials used, (2) quantity of wash and spirits manufactured, (3) quantity of wash used, (4) quantity of spirit passed out, and (5) quantities of wash and spirits in store. Under the last head the quantity of spirit remaining in stock in each cask, vat or other receptacle shall be shown. Such accounts shall be open at all times to inspection by the Excise officer in charge or other Excise officer authorised by the Collector.

16. It shall be the duty of the distiller to bring any breach of the Excise law or of any of the rules framed thereunder committed by any person in his employ to the notice of the Excise officer in charge who will report the matter to the Collector. The distiller will be bound to comply with the orders of the Collector thereon.

17. The officer in charge may eject and exclude from the premises any person whom he shall find to have committed or to be about to commit any breach of the Excise law or rules or who shall be intoxicated or disorderly. Any such action taken by such officer shall be immediately reported to his official superior.

18. The use within the distillery of any naked lights of any description is prohibited.

19. All sums due to Government may be recovered from the amount of deposit made by the distiller or by sale of the premises, stills, etc., pledged under the bond. On the expiry of the license either on account of expiry of the term, or on account of cancellation or suspension, the distiller will be bound to remove all spirits remaining within the distillery on payment of full duty. If he shall fail to do so within a month, all such spirits shall be liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Commissioner.

20. The distiller shall be bound by the provisions of the Excise Act, by all rules, etc., for management of distilleries or for issue of spirits therefrom which may be prescribed under the Excise Act from time to time and by all special orders which may be issued by the Commissioner regarding any particular distillery.

Distillers and warehouse-keepers to account for deficiency in stocks.

21. An account will be taken of the distiller's stocks of spirit at such intervals, not being greater than three months, and in such a manner as the Commissioner may direct; and the distiller shall pay to Government duty at the tariff rate on all spirits which may not be forthcoming and for which he shall be unable to account to the satisfaction of the Commissioner in excess of an allowance of 1½ per cent. which will be allowed for wastage. Wastage for the purpose of collection of duty on the excess as aforesaid shall be calculated annually, that is, at the end of the year for which the license is in force.

Saving in case of accident.

Provided that if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, or of such officer as he shall specify, that such deficiency in excess of 1½ per cent. has been caused by accident or other unavoidable cause, the payment of duty at the above rate on such deficiency will not be required.

Introduction of saccharine matter, etc., into spirits.

22. If any saccharine or other matter of such a nature as to obscure the indications of the hydrometer shall be introduced into spirits, duty will be calculated on the quantity and strength of such spirits as ascertained before the introduction of such matter. No allowance will be made for wastage in such spirits after the addition of such matter and before removal from the distillery. Such spirits shall be kept in a separate receptacle.

23. No distillation shall ordinarly be carried on by the distiller on Sunday so as to allow the officers in charge sufficient rest from their work. If it is necessary to carry on distillation on a Sunday, the distiller should stop distillation on some other day in the week to afford rest to the officers in charge. Such stoppage of distillation and other work in the distillery should be for not less than four days during a month. The distiller will so arrange his operations in the distillery that the officers in charge need not be on duty for more than eight hours per diem. If it becomes necessary for such officers to remain on duty for more than the prescribed time, the distiller will be liable to pay such extra charges for such attendance as may be fixed by Commissioner.

24. Whether for issue from the distillery or for taking periodical stock, gauging of spirits in vats or casks may be done by dip-rod measurement, weighment, or by such other method as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. Whenever by bung-rod measurement the deficiency in any cask is found to be excessive, the whole contents of the cask should be promptly measured by gallon measures and the actual deficiency accurately ascertained.

25. Distillers who desire to manufacture foreign liquor for sale must take out a separate wholesale vend license.

26. Manufacturers of foreign liquor must take out separate compounding and bottling licenses in accordance with the rules framed therefor, if such operations are carried on.

27. All processes connected with bottling, flavouring, blending or colouring foreign liquor must be conducted in a separate building within the distillery enclosure. Full duty at the tariff rate must be realised on all spirit intended for the manufacture of potable foreign liquor, before it leaves the store-room. After this the officer in charge will exercise no control over the liquor except to see that the rules relating to bottling and compounding are complied with.

28. In distilleries opened for the manufacture of spirits for the purpose of preparing chemicals, drugs, essences, medicated articles, tinctures, &c., or in other distilleries where such operations are permitted, the officers in charge shall allow spirits to be issued from the store-room under a special permit, in such quantities as may be fixed by the Commissioner from time to time in this behalf on application of the distiller. Such operations shall always be conducted within the distillery compound and in a separate building. After the manufacture of any article specified in the permit is completed, the distiller shall submit a sample of such article to the officer in charge, who shall either himself or through the Chemical Examiner or through the Excise Laboratory ascertain the quantity of proof spirit contained therein. Duty will then be realized on the quantity of spirit existing in such chemical or medicinal preparations at the tariff rate, at the time of issue from the distillery.

Clause 6.

ISSUE OF SPIRIT FROM DISTILLERIES.

1. No spirit shall be removed from any distillery unless it has been gauged and proved by the officer in charge. If removed on payment of duty, the gauging must be by actual measurement or by weighment: if removed under bond, the gauging may be by bung-rod.

2. No spirit shall be removed except under a pass granted by the officer in charge provided that a pass will not be required before issue of foreign liquor (other than denatured spirit) for which duty has been paid in accordance with rule 30. Such pass shall be issued either on proof of full payment of duty or on proof of execution of bond by the exporter, and may include any quantity up to the quantity covered by the duty paid; or the bond Collectors may permit distillers or exporters to make advance deposits for the payment of duty.

3. Issues may be made for local consumption and use as follows: —

(1) Foreign liquors (excluding denatured spirits)—

(a) to licensed vendors of foreign liquors.

(b) to private persons for their own consumption.

(2) Country spirit—
to persons licensed to sell such spirits and permitted to obtain supply from the distillery by the Commissioner.

(3) Denatured spirits—to persons holding license for sale of such spirits or for use of such spirits in business.

(4) Rectified spirits of wine—to persons requiring such spirits for chemical, medicinal or other industrial purposes and holding permit from the Collector to obtain such spirits from the distillery.

4. Issue of country spirits under rule 4 (2) may only be made from a separate warehouse within the distillery and of which the key is kept by the officer in charge and only at such strengths as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

5. The quantity of country spirit to be removed from the distillery to any Excise warehouse shall not generally be less than 52 liquid gallons, the ordinary contents of standard hogshead. But issues of country spirit may be made from a separate warehouse attached to the distillery in any quantity not less than one gallon.

6. An allowance shall be made for the loss in transit by leakage and evaporation of spirits transported or exported under bond, by land up to the maximum quantities shown below:—

	Per cent.
For distance not exceeding 10 miles ...	.. Nil.
For distance exceeding 10, but not exceeding 200 miles	.. 5
For distance exceeding 200 miles ...	... 7½

If the report of the officer by whom a consignment of spirits transported or exported under bond has been gauged and proved on arrival at its destination should show that wastage to a greater extent than the above has occurred, the distiller shall pay duty at the rates specified in the bond on so much of the deficiency as is in excess of the above allowance, provided that if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such deficiency has been caused by accident or other unavoidable cause, the Commissioner may remit such duty. The allowance to be made under this rule will be determined by deducting from the quantity of spirits despatched, the quantity received at the place of destination, both quantities being stated in L. P. gallons and will be calculated on the quantity contained in each cask or other receptacle comprised in a consignment. Such duty on deficiency shall be realised by the Collector of the district in which the distillery is situated on receipt of the report from the officer in charge of the warehouse to which the spirit was consigned.

Clauses 1 (a), 1 (b) and 9.

RULES REGARDING COMPOUNDING AND BLENDING OF FOREIGN LIQUOR, AND BOTTLING FOR THE PURPOSE OF SALE.

(1) These rules apply to potable foreign liquor only.

(2) "Compounding" means the artificial preparation of foreign liquor, by the addition to imported or locally-made spirit of flavouring or colouring matter or both.

(3) "Blending" means the artificial preparation of foreign liquor by the mixture of imported or locally made spirits or wines of different strengths and different qualities.

(4) "Bottling" means bottling as defined in section 2 (8) of the Bengal Excise Act, 1909.

(5) No compounding or blending of foreign liquor is permitted except in premises duly licensed in this behalf by the Collector.

(6) Such license will be granted only to persons holding a wholesale license for the sale of foreign liquor. The fee for every such license will be Rs. 300 per annum.

(7) When any wholesale vendor of foreign liquor desires to carry on operations of compounding or blending, he will submit an application to the Collector stating the nature of the operations he desires to perform, and the premises where such operations are to be performed. On receipt of such application the Collector will decide whether a license should be granted, and may then grant a license with the sanction of the Commissioner.

(8) No colouring or flavouring substance may be added to any liquor until such substance has been examined and passed by the Commissioner and only in such proportion as the Commissioner may on examination direct.

(9) The Commissioner may impose such fee not exceeding Rs. 2 as he considers necessary for each examination.

(10) All receptacles containing compounded or blended liquor must be labelled as compounded or blended in India.

(11) Foreign liquor may not be bottled for sale except under a license to be granted in that behalf by the Collector. Such license will be granted only to persons holding a wholesale license for the sale of foreign liquor, on payment of an annual fee of Rs. 50.

(12) Bottles filled with liquor compounded or blended in India must bear labels specifying the nature of the liquor contained therein, i.e., whether it is whisky, brandy, gin, rum liqueur or wine, the name of the district where it is bottled, and the country of origin.

(13) Bottles filled with liquor imported in bulk from foreign countries must bear labels specifying the nature of the liquor contained therein, the country of origin, and the fact that they are bottled in India.

(14) When any operations of blending, compounding or bottling are to be carried on by a licensee, he must notify to the Collector the days and hours during which such operations will be carried on, and it will be the duty of the Collector to ensure that they are conducted in accordance with the conditions of the license.

Clauses 1(a), 6, 7, 12, 13.

RULES REGARDING WAREHOUSES FOR COUNTRY SPIRIT.

1. WAREHOUSES for the supply of country spirit to retail vendors are established by the Commissioner at convenient places at the expense of Government. Under special circumstances such warehouses may be constructed by a wholesale supply contractor or licensed vendor. Each such warehouse is supplied with country spirit by the manufacturer or wholesale dealer within whose area of supply such warehouse lies and is in charge of an Excise officer.

2. Spirit intended for the warehouse is conveyed thereto under bond, and at the sole risk and responsibility of the wholesale dealer. The bond is discharged when the spirit is deposited in the warehouse and has been duly gauged and proved by the officer in charge. It will be the duty of the person licensed to supply such warehouse to keep such minimum stock of spirit at the warehouse as the Commissioner may from time to time direct.

3. No spirit shall be issued from a warehouse except under a pass. All casks or vats in a warehouse containing spirit must bear tickets showing the quantity of spirit contained therein, and the strength thereof. Issues made from time to time from such casks or vats will be noted thereon.

4. Spirit intended for a warehouse must be conveyed in sound and water-tight casks, the exact capacity of which must be branded or carved thereon.

5. Immediately on arrival of a consignment at the warehouse, the officer in charge shall open the vessels and measure and test the spirit in each vessel. If on comparison with the copy of the pass covering the consignment, any excessive defficiency is found to occur in any cask after measurement of the spirit by bungrod, the whole contents of the cask shall be measured by gallon-measures, and the actual deficiency shall be thus ascertained. He will then note the results in the prescribed registers, and also on the passes covering the consignment. One copy of the pass with the entries of receipt will be immediately returned to the officer who issued the consignment, and the other copy with the entries thereon shall be kept in the warehouse.

6. Every warehouse will be locked with a Government lock, the key of which will remain with the officer in charge. Where the owner of the spirit keeps an agent permanently attached to the warehouse, he will be at liberty to affix his own lock also to the warehouse.

7. All spirit supplied to a warehouse shall be of good quality, and shall correspond to the sample approved by Commissioner. If any spirit supplied be found by the officer in charge to be unfit for human consumption, he will submit a sample of such spirit to the Commissioner whose orders thereon shall be final. If necessary, the Commissioner can order the destruction of such spirit. Pending the decision of the Commissioner, the officer in charge can stop the issue of such spirit.

8. Spirit supplied to a warehouse must be stored in casks, vats or iron tanks. The owner will supply these articles, and all other appliances which may be required for the blending, reducing or issue of spirit.

9. Vats or tanks must be of such number and capacity, and set up according to such design, as the Commissioner may, by general or special order, direct. All vats, tanks or casks used for blending or reducing spirit must be provided with proper diprods, so that the contents may be readily ascertainable.

10. The working days and hours for issue of spirit from a warehouse will be prescribed by the Collector in consideration of the needs of the retail vendors.

11. The reduction of spirit of high strength to the strength or strengths prescribed for issue will be made according to rules framed by the Commissioner.

12. Retail vendors will take their supplies of spirit from the warehouse which is established for the area in which the retail shops are situated. For special reasons the Collector may permit retail vendors to take their supply from any other warehouse assigned to the same wholesale dealer.

13. Retail vendors desiring to obtain supply of spirit from a warehouse will pay the duty leviable thereon, into the treasury or sub-treasury of the place where such warehouse is situated. In the case of outlying warehouses the vendors may, if convenient to them, send the amount by money-order to the Excise Deputy Collector.

14. The quantity of spirit required, its strength, and the amount due for duty, will be separately noted by the vendor on the challan, or on the money-order form. The officer in charge will, on receipt of a copy of the challan showing payment of the amount due into the treasury or sub-treasury or of the money-order receipt showing payment into the Post Office, prepare a transport pass in the prescribed form and will issue the spirit specified in such pass.

15. With special sanction of the Collector, and for exceptional reasons, e.g., closure of the treasury or Post Office, the officer in charge of a warehouse can receive the amount due for duty on account of spirit required by any vendor, and on such receipt can issue the spirit required. Such amount must be duly credited into a treasury or sent by money-order to the Excise Deputy Collector invariably on the next open day.

16. A retail vendor may credit into the treasury or sub-treasury lump sums from time to time on account of duty. A ledger account of each such vendor will then be kept by the officer in charge of the warehouse. The account will be balanced after each transaction. The officer in charge of the warehouse will be responsible that spirit in excess of the credit of each vendor is not issued.

The receptacle in which spirit is reduced by the addition of water must be emptied before the operation is commenced.

The wastage on account of reduction must be calculated and noted when the spirit is reduced. As each cask, vat or other receptacle is emptied, the wastage occurring therein will be noted by the officer in charge in the prescribed register. If the wastage is found to exceed 1 per cent. of the quantity stored, the Excise Deputy Collector or Subdivisional officer will specially enquire into the cause for such wastage, and report the facts to the Collector who will take such action thereupon as he considers necessary. The wholesale dealer will be responsible for any such excessive wastage, if it is found to occur from any negligence on his part in supplying unsound casks, tanks or vats, or on the part of his agent in conducting the operations.

Clauses 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 9(iii) and 12.

RULES REGARDING DENATURED SPIRIT.

Spirit imported from other provinces in British India under bond in accordance with the rules for import of foreign liquor may be denatured in the distillery or excise warehouse where such spirit is warehoused, and then issued subject to the reduced rate of duty.

2. Spirit manufactured in any distillery in Bengal may be denatured within such distillery and issued subject to the reduced rate of duty.

3. Denaturing of spirit in distilleries or excise warehouses in Bengal for issue subject to the reduced rate of duty shall be conducted according to the following rules.

4. The ingredient or ingredients for denaturing of spirit shall be procured by the importer or by the distiller at his own expense and before admixture such ingredient or ingredients will be tested by the Chemical Examiner to Government on the request of the Collector of the district, who will certify that the article if used in the proportion laid down will render the spirit unfit for human consumption.

Proportion of caoutchoucine to be mixed with spirit.

5. When the ingredient is caoutchoucine, it shall be mixed in the proportion of one part by volume of the caoutchoucine to 99 parts by volume of the spirit, and this spirit shall not be of less strength than 30 per cent. over-proof. When the admixture is completed, the liquor shall be tested by drawing a sample of about half an ounce from each cask or drum, and adding to each sample separately three or four times that quantity of water. If the mixture becomes turbid and milky, the liquor shall be admitted to the reduced rate of duty. In case of dispute as to whether the liquid has become turbid and milky, the decision of the Collector or the Superintendent of Excise Revenue shall be final.

Proportion of crude wood naphtha and mineral naphtha to be mixed with spirit.

6. When the ingredients are crude wood naphtha and mineral naphtha the crude wood naphtha shall be mixed with the spirit, which shall not be of less strength than 30 per cent. over-proof, in the proportion of one part by volume of the naphtha to nine parts by volume of the spirit, and to this mixture shall be added three-eighths per cent. of mineral naphtha of specific gravity not less than ·800.

7. When the spirit is alleged to have been rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption by the admixture of crude wood naphtha and mineral naphtha, such number of samples as the Collector or the Superintendent of Excise Revenue may direct shall be sent to the Chemical Examiner to Government for examination and report at the expense of the importer or distiller.

Samples to be sent to the Chemical Examiner for examination and report.

Provided that—

(a) if the consignment contains casks of not less than 50 gallons each, the person denaturing may demand that not less than one sample shall be sent from each such cask;

(b) If the consignment contains casks or drums of less than 50 gallons each, the person denaturing may, and shall, if so ordered by the Collector or the Superintendent of Excise Revenue, before admixture of the denaturalising ingredients, pour the contents of two or more such casks at the licensed distillery or excise warehouse into one or more casks of not less than 50 gallons capacity; and, when this is, done, the spirit shall be treated, for the purpose of testing and for the the levy of expenses under rules 10 and 11, as if originally stored in such larger casks.

8. After considering the Chemical Examiner's report and other circumstances, if any, bearing upon the case, the Collector or the Superintendent of Excise Revenue shall decide whether the said spirit shall be allowed removal or not at the reduced rate of duty. Should any of the samples examined by the Chemical Examiner be reported by him as not rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption, the claim in respect of the whole of the spirit represented by the sample shall be rejected, and the spirit shall either be dealt with in all respects as spirits chargeable with the ordinary rate of duty, or, if the person denaturing the spirit so desire, be further treated under rule 7 for the purpose of rendering it effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption.

Removal of spirit at reduced rate of duty when to be allowed.

9. The following fees shall be paid for chemical analysis:—

Fees for chemical analysis.

A fee shall be paid at the rate of Rs. 2 for each sample sent for analysis. An additional fee of Re. 1 for each set of samples sent shall be paid to cover the cost of taking and sending samples from the licensed distillery or excise warehouse to the Chemical Examiner.

10. Any expense which may be incurred by the Collector or the Superintendent of Excise Revenue in rendering spirit unfit for human consumption, or in ascertaining that it has been so rendered, shall be paid by the person denaturing the spirit before the removal of the spirit is allowed.

Expenses to be borne by the person removing the spirit.

11. When such spirit has been rendered permanently unfit for human consumption in the manner above prescribed, it may be issued to persons licensed to sell such spirit or to use such spirit for special purposes.

12. For the purpose of determining the amount of duty to be levied on such spirit, its market value shall be fixed by the Collector subject to revision by the Excise Commissioner.

13. Licenses for sale of denatured spirit will be granted by the Collector to approved persons only. As a general rule such licenses will not be granted to vendors of potable spirits.

14. A retail licensee of denatured spirit shall not possess more than 60 gallons of such spirit at a time.

15. Licenses for possession of denatured spirit in excess of the quantity fixed as the limit for private possession, for business purposes, will be issued only to varnish-makers, carpenters, chemists and others who may require such spirit in large quantities for their business and will be for possession of such quantity as may be specified in each case by the Collector.

16. The room where denatured spirit shall be stored by vendors thereof, or by persons licensed to possess in large quantities, shall be built of uninflammable materials and shall be well ventilated so as to prevent the accumulation of spirit fumes Naked lights or fire shall not be used or kept in such room. SECOND REPORT ON THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, OCTOBER 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

SECOND REPORT ON THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, OCTOBER 1909.

(On an average of the five years ending 1907-08, the area under the cotton crop in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 0·35 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India).

Explanatory.—The present forecast deals with the progress of sowings since the publication of the August report and with the condition of the standing crops.

Character of the season.—The early variety is chiefly grown in the Sonthal Parganas, Manbhum, Singhbhum, Angul, Ranchi and Sambalpur, and the late variety is mostly cultivated in North Bihar and Singhbhum; Saran alone comprises almost half of the total late cotton area. It is sown partly before and partly after the rainy season. Since the publication of the first report in August last the weather has been favourable. The condition of the crops is good except in Bankura and in parts of Shahabad where damage has been done by excessive rain and floods. Sowings of the late variety have not yet commenced in Bankura, Cuttack, Balasore and Angul.

Area sown.—The total area sown with the early crop is estimated at 34,118 acres against 31,230 acres of last year.

The area sown with the late cotton up to now is reported to be 27,980 acres. The area as shown in the final cotton forecast of last year was 32,869 acres.

FIRST FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 16th October 1909.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

FIRST FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

(On an average of five years ending 1907-08, the area under winter rice in the territory to which the forecast relates has represented some 27·7 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—The season has been a very favourable one for the rice crop. There was little rain during the winter, but the fall in April and May was sufficient for ploughing, and ample rain fell when it was required in June. Sowings in many districts commenced earlier than usual. In a few districts, particularly Burdwan, Nadia and Jessore, transplantation was retarded through absence of rain in July. Portions of Burdwan, Howrah, Jessore, and the Ghatal subdivision of Midnapore suffered from floods in August. The condition of the crop in the province as a whole is excellent.

Area sown.—The normal area under winter rice is 20,690,500 acres. The district returns show that this year there is 21,179,200 acres under the crop. The figures for 1908-09 were close upon 18 million acres, so that there is an increase of three million acres since last year. The increase is due mainly to the seasonable rainfall, but is partially accounted for in Central Bengal in some districts by the decrease in the area under jute.

Outturn.—Everything depends on the October rainfall but in the meantime a crop above the average is expected from the province. The District Officers estimate for Muzaffarpur 114 per cent., for Monghyr, Champaran and Manbhum 1.0 per cent., for 24-Parganas 107 per cent., Sambalpur 104 per cent., and the Sonthal Parganas 102 per cent. The District Officers of Khulna, Patna, Gaya, Bhagalpur, Balasore, Ranchi and Palamau anticipate a normal crop of 100 per cent. Sixteen districts anticipate a crop between 80 and 100 per cent. of the normal, and only three districts—Nadia, Jessore and Burdwan—anticipate less. The provincial outturn, calculated on these figures, comes to 96 per cent. of the normal; but if the season continues favourable, as it promises to do, there is no doubt that a crop considerably above the normal will be reaped.

W. R. GOURLAY,
Offg. Director of Agriculture Bengal.

DARJEELING,
The 2nd October 1909.

The rainfall was insufficient in some parts of the district at the beginning of the sowing season and very heavy throughout at the end of August. The general condition of the crop is therefore not satisfactory. The date of sowing was normal in some parts and late in others. Unfavourable weather and the recent floods account for the decrease in the area and the low outturn.

GENERAL SUMMARY.—The weather was seasonable at the beginning of the week, but towards the latter part it became cyclonic in Lower Bengal, and owing to this reports have not been received from all districts. From Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore and Khulna no reports have been received up to now, but from the information received up to the present it appears that in Lower Bengal the rainfall has been general and in the rest of the Province a few scattered showers have been received. Harvesting of autumn crops is near completion. Winter paddy and sugarcane—two most important crops of this Province—are thriving, but more rain is wanted for winter paddy on high lands in some districts in Bihar and Orissa. The price of common rice has risen in the 24-Parganas, Gaya, Saran and Champaran, and has fallen in Bankura, Hooghly, Shahabad, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur, Purnea, Balasore, Sambalpur, Palamau and Singhbhum. Cattle-disease is reported from Patna, Gaya, Bhagalpur, Purnea, the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Puri, Sambalpur, Palamau and Manbhum. The fodder and water-supply is sufficient throughout the Province.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

⌓, dew ; o, overcast.

The 21st September 1909.

No. 12.—Notification.—With reference to notification No. 5, dated 31st March 1908, which was published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 1st April 1908 at page 788, Part I, and in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 78 and 99 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal proposes to pass the following rules and to fix the undermentioned rates to be charged for water supplied from the Tribeni Canal, with effect from the 1st April 1910.

T. BUTLER,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal

General Conditions.

1. The revenue administration of the Tribeni Canal is vested in the Superintending Engineer of the Gandak Circle. The Divisional Canal Officer is responsible for maintaining the canal in an efficient condition, for the distribution of water to the lessees, and for the closing of the outlets in rotation when required; he is further responsible for the assessment of water rates.

2. The Collector of the district is responsible for the collection of water rates.

3. Except as provided in the Act and in these rules, no appeal shall lie from an order passed by a Canal Officer, but the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the order of the Divisional Canal Officer, and the Subdivisional Canal Officer or Divisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the orders of the Superintending Canal Officer, who shall exercise a general control over the proceedings of all Canal Officers.

4. In appeals to the Collector under section 91 of the Act other than those especially provided for in rule 14 the Collector may require the Superintending Engineer to state his opinion in writing, which opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings of the case.

On Applications.

5. Any person who requires a lease for water may apply to—

(a) the Sectional Officer, or

(b) the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

These preliminary applications must be made in writing and may be on plain paper. The person receiving them shall enter on the back any further data required.

On Leases and Permits.

6. Leases for the supply of water for any crop may be granted, on application, by the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

7. When a lease is granted, an agreement shall be taken in forms given in Appendices I, III and IV, and a "permit" shall be given to the lessee or lessees in forms given in Appendices II and V.

On Water Rates.

8. The following rates will be charged for water supplied, whether taken by lift or flow :—

		Rs.	A.
I.	For leases for kharif crops, 1st June to 15th November ...	2	0
II.	For leases for rabi crops, 1st November to end of February ...	1	4
III.	For each watering supplied between 1st March and 1st June...	0	12

On Demand Statements.

9. The statement of the amounts due for the water rates leviable under these rules shall be prepared under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer in such form as shall, from time to time, be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor. A parcha showing the area and amount assessed against each cultivator shall be sent to him through the cultivator's representative before the demand statement is sent to the Collector for realization. Persons charged under rule 21 shall be served as soon as the charge is made, by post or otherwise, with a statement showing the amounts charged.

10. The rates of water supplied on kharif leases shall be payable in two equal instalments falling due respectively on the 1st January and 1st February following, but all sums of Rs. 10 and under shall become due on the 1st January and be payable in one instalment.

The rates for water supplied on rabi leases shall fall due on the 1st April following.

The rates for water supplied between 1st March and 1st June shall fall due on the 1st July following.

11. Water rates imposed under rule 8 shall fall due as soon as the assessment is made and shall be realised at once.

12. Objections to the demand statements must be presented within thirty days of the date on which the parcha was received by the lambardar, but the period shall be extended where reasonable cause for delay can be established.

On Remissions.

13. Remission of water rates, either in whole or in part, shall be granted as follows :—

(i) By the Divisional Canal Officer for errors in assessment or rates.

(ii) By the Divisional Canal Officer for injury to a crop on a leased area caused by a deficiency in the supply of water.

In the latter case a written application must be made at least 20 days before the crop is cut.

14. Remissions on other grounds than the above require the sanction of Superintending Canal Officer.

15. In cases where sums due on account of water rates cannot be collected owing to the death, bankruptcy, or absconding of the defaulter, the amount which is not realisable may be written off as irrecoverable on the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer.

On Cultivators' Representatives.

16. In all applications and permits the names of one or more persons shall be entered as lambardar, who will be responsible for discharging the duties mentioned below :—

(i) Obtaining signatures to applications and certifying to the correctness of the name.

(ii) Attending and giving assistance in measuring land irrigated, or proposed to be irrigated.

(iii) Giving timely information to the Canal Officer or subordinate of any insufficiency in the supply of water and promptly reporting when the irrigation of the leased area, or any channel, is complete.

(iv) Supervising the distribution of the water supplied through an outlet amongst the persons entitled thereto and reporting any misuse of the same.

(v) Being present when complaints are investigated by a Canal Officer, or subordinate, and giving information required in connection with the same.

(vi) Receiving parchas from the Canal Officer and distributing the same amongst the persons named therein.

(vii) Reporting before the 15th of October all cases in which crops have been injured by deficiency or irregularity of supply in the kharif season so that these cases may be investigated before water rates are demanded.

(viii) Assisting the Collector by pointing out the residences of the persons assessed and identifying them.

17. The remuneration for performing the duties mentioned in the rule immediately preceding shall be two per cent. on the assessment (excluding fractions of a rupee) which shall be paid by the Canal Officer. The amount paid shall be calculated in rupees and annas only, pies being omitted.

18. The lambardar will be appointed by the Subdivisional Officer in consultation with the applicants for the lease, and must be a substantial person having a beneficial interest in part of the land to be irrigated. There is no objection to different lambardars being appointed to represent sections of the applicants or to two or more persons being jointly appointed as lambardars on behalf of the whole of the applicants. In case the Subdivisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of lambardar, he shall nominate a lambardar for approval by the Divisional Canal Officer.

19. The Divisional Canal Officer may, for reasons which appear to him to be sufficient and which must be recorded, remove a lambardar from his appointment, and in that case a new lambardar shall be appointed in the manner prescribed in the rule immediately preceding.

20. The fees to be paid to lambardars will only be disbursed if the duties specified have been satisfactorily performed. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees payable for reasons to be recorded in writing.

On Unauthorised Irrigation.

21. For the unauthorised use of canal water a rate of Rs. 5 per acre shall be charged; this rate may, however, be reduced at the discretion of the Divisional Canal Officer.

22. When it comes to the knowledge of the Subdivisional Canal Officer that canal water has been taken in an unauthorised manner, he shall hold a local investigation, and, if he considers that the land deriving benefit is liable to assessment, he shall serve a notice on the persons concerned, fixing a date for hearing objections. Any objections made shall be taken down and the whole record forwarded to the Divisional Canal Officer for disposal.

23. The Divisional Canal Officer after hearing any objection that may be raised shall, if he is of opinion that the land should be assessed, fix the rates allowed under rule 21 and return the record to the Subdivisional Canal Officer who shall then complete the assessment. Water rates shall not be charged where the unauthorised irrigation has occurred through the act, neglect or default of a Canal Officer or subordinate.

24. Applications for leases may be subsequently received from villages in which unauthorised irrigation has occurred, and these villages may be granted leases; in such cases the persons assessed under rule 21 shall also pay the water rates due in respect of the lease subsequently granted, provided that the total of these two rates shall not exceed the maximum rate chargeable under rule 21. In such cases of double assessment the Divisional Canal Officer may remit, in whole or in part, the rates assessed under rule 21.

On Penalties and Cancelling of Leases.

25. The Superintending Canal Officer may, with the concurrence of the Collector, direct the Divisional Canal Officer to cease to issue permits for the irrigation of lands in villages where there have been constant difficulties in realising water rates until all the arrears of water rates due are paid up; and also, if specially so ordered, until half the amount due under new applications is paid in advance. An order under this rule shall be in force for the time stated therein, which shall not exceed three years.

Miscellaneous.

26. No person shall, without the written permission of the Divisional or Subdivisional Canal Officer, pass or cause any animal or vehicle to pass along or across any of the works channels or banks of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, except by means of such bridges, fords and ferries and their approaches as have been provided for the purpose. Any person who after due warning breaks this rule may be proceeded against under section 93, caluse (9) of the Bengal Irrigation Act III of 1876.

27. Unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operations of these rules, no officer employed on the canal shall have any interest in the distribution of water from it, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

28. Any Canal Officer may, in the case of pressing emergency, stop the supply of water to any canal or distributary. If such order is passed by an officer below the rank of a Divisional Canal Officer, it shall forthwith be reported to the Divisional Canal Officer, and if the stoppage exceeds five days in duration, to the Superintending Canal Officer.

29. No water shall be supplied nor shall any person be entitled to a supply of water until a permit signed by a Canal Officer authorised to sign a permit, has been signed and issued.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORTS ON INLAND EMIGRATION UNDER THE ASSAM LABOUR AND EMIGRATION ACT, 1901, FOR THE YEAR ENDING THE 30TH JUNE 1909.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EMIGRATION.

Darjeeling, the 12th October 1909.

RESOLUTION—No. 2213T.—G.

READ—

The Reports on Inland Emigration under the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901 (VI of 1901), for the year ending the 30th June 1909, submitted by the Superintendents of Emigration, Calcutta, the Sonthal Parganas, Hazaribagh, Ranchi, Palamau, Manbhum and Singhbhum, and Sambalpur.

Read also—

The remarks of the Commissioners of the Bhagalpur, Orissa and Chota Nagpur Divisions on the reports submitted by the Superintendents of Emigration in their respective Divisions.

During the year under review Government has maintained the policy of encouraging genuine free recruitment through boná fide garden sardars working under Associations of recognised standing and probity. In the previous year certain concessions were granted to the Tea Districts Labour Supply Association, by which garden sardars, working under the control of the local agents of the Associations, were authorised to forward unindentured emigrants without producing them before a registering officer. To check any possibility of abuse local agents of the Association were required to submit monthly complete lists of emigrants forwarded by them, ar d Magistrates and Police Officers above the rank of Sub-Inspectors were empowered to inspect the local agents' registers at any time. These concessions have now been extended to the Assam Labour Association and the Longai Valley Employers' Recruiting Association. In extending the concessions, Commissioners of Divisions were requested to instruct local officers to license local agents nominated by the Associations, unless something was definitely known to their discredit, and to refuse to license as a local agent any person who was reasonably suspected to have any personal interest in, or connection with, other contractors, or recruiters, licensed or otherwise. They were also directed to cancel without hesitation the license of any local agent who might be guilty of a serious breach of the law or rules, particularly if he was found to have any dealings with recruiters other than the garden sardars of his Association.

2. During the year, the Inland Emigration Act (Act VI of 1901) was amended by the passing of Act XI of 1908. This measure was the outcome of a desire expressed by the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam to withdraw certain provisions of Act VI of 1901 relating to labour districts from the districts of Cachar, Sylhet, Kamrup and Goalpara, so that contracts should no longer be taken from emigrants proceeding to these districts. It was at the same time desired to facilitate the experiment of free recruitment by garden sardars. Accordingly section 91 of Act VI of 1901 has been so amended by Act XI of 1908, that local Governments may dispense with, or relax, by notification, any of the provisions of Chapters III and IV of Act VI of 1901, subject to any conditions which may be prescribed in the notification. The labour provisions of the Inland Emigration Act were withdrawn from the Surma Valley districts and the districts of Kamrup and Goalpara with effect from the 1st November 1908, and two notifications were issued by this Government under the revised section 91, in which it was declared that in the case of emigrants recruited for these districts by licensed contractors and by garden sardars not accredited to the local agent of an approved Association, the provisions of the Act which prescribe the execution of agreements should no longer be enforced, but that in other respects the procedure laid down in Chapters III and IV of the Act should continue to be followed. The Estate of Porahat in the district of Singhbhum was closed to recruitment by contractors during the year, and the question of further restricting the areas in which recruitment by contractors is permitted is at present engaging the attention of Government.

3. During the year ending the 30th June 1908, the number of emigrants of all classes recruited in Bengal, Madras, the Central Provinces and the United Provinces, who embarked at Goalundo was 91,587, as against 24,593 in the previous year. This was the largest number on record since 1897, and the striking increase was attributed to the scarcity and high prices of food-stuffs prevailing in recruiting districts. In the year ending the 30th June 1909, the number of emigrants who embarked at Goalundo fell to 56,791. This decrease is due partly to the more prosperous character of the year and partly to a reduction in the demand consequent on the unusually large number of emigrants despatched in the previous year.

4. The total number of emigrants registered under Chapters III and IV of the Act in this Province was 8,048 and 3,183 respectively, compared with 8,748 and 6,825 respectively in the year 1907-1908. Of these, 733 emigrants recruited by the licensed recruiters, and 893 emigrants engaged by garden sardars, were forwarded without being placed on contract. Three hundred emigrants, as against 1,865 in the previous year, were recruited by garden sardars holding special permits under section 90, while 25,774 unindentured emigrants were engaged by garden sardars working under the control of approved Associations, as against 21,415 emigrants in the year 1907-1908. The work of the local agents of these Associations is reported to have been generally satisfactory, and no Superintendent of Emigration had occasion to cancel any local agent's license.

5. The number of licenses issued to contractors and recruiters during the year fell to 22 and 294 respectively from 24 and 340 in the preceding year. The total number of garden sardars employed in this province was 9,112, or 2,102 more than in the year 1907-1908. Of these 795 worked under the ordinary procedure of Chapter IV, 112 held special permits under section 90, and the remaining 8,205 (as compared with 5,054 in the previous year) worked under the control of approved Associations. The increase in the number of sardars accredited to the local agents of the Associations deserves remark, as it indicates that employers in Assam are gradually realising the fact that the interests of the tea industry will be best served by free labour and genuine free recruitment by garden sardars.

6. The report show that depôts and places of accommodation for emigrants were properly inspected and maintained in good sanitary condition.

7. Several cases of misdescription of emigrants by garden sardars were reported during the year, and the offenders were suitably punished. There was a marked increase in the number of cases of illegal recruitment instituted in the Sonthal Parganas during the year. The Deputy Commissioner attributes this to the fact that though the district has been closed to recruitment, a large number of recruiters still find it worthwhile to entice persons from that district to contractors' depôts at Asansol, Raniganj and other places. He considers that the only remedy is to close these depôts. The Deputy Commissioner of Sambalpur also reports that illicit practices still go on, and that this is likely to continue so long as recruitment under Chapter III is permitted in the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions. Government recognises that the closing of these divisions to recruitment by contractors is an ideal which should be kept in view, but that some time must elapse before it can be completely attained.

8. There was a falling off in the receipts and an increase in the charges of the Inland Labour Transport Fund during the year under review. They were Rs. 13,165 and Rs. 23,420 respectively, as against Rs. 16,918 and Rs. 20,872 in the previous year. The decrease in the receipts was due to the falling off in the number of Emigrants registered and of licenses issued to Contractors and Recruiters.

THE PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE LATE VARIETY OF THE SESAMUM (TIL) CROP OF BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 25th October 1909.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE LATE VARIETY OF THE SESAMUM (til) CROP OF BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1909.

(On an average of the five years ending 1907-08, the area under til in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 5·7 per cent. of the total area under this crop in British India.)

Explanatory.—This first forecast deals with the preliminary estimates of the area and outturn of the late variety of the crop.

Character of the season.—Til is very largely cultivated in Sambalpur, where it covers more than 50 per cent. of the total area under its cultivation in this Province. In this district the season has been favourable up to the present, and prospects are reported to be good. The less important growing districts of this oilseed are Palamau, Midnapore, Singhbhum, Bhagalpur and Khulna. In these districts, as well as in the remaining districts of this Province, where til is grown, the weather has been seasonable on the whole and the general condition of the crop is good, although some damage has been done by excessive rain and floods towards the end of August in parts of Lower Bengal. The dates of sowing were generally normal.

Area sown.—The total area cultivated up to now this year is estimated at 158,500 acres, against 147,000 acres shown in the report for the last year. The total normal area under the crop is given as 222,500 acres.

Outturn.—The estimates returned by District Officers point to a provincial crop 95 per cent. of the normal. Last year's crop for the Province was estimated at 73 per cent.

GENERAL SUMMARY.—During the week under report, light showers fell in Lower Bengal and in Purnea, Darjeeling, the Sonthal Parganas, Balasore, Puri, Singhbhum and Cooch Behar. These showers were preceded by heavy cyclonic weather which did damage to all crops in Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore and Khulna. Much damage was also done to winter paddy and to other standing crops in the region where the cyclone travelled. Unfavourable reports as to the present state of crops have been received from Murshidabad, Nadia, Jessore and Hooghly. There has been loss of life of both men and cattle in some places in Jessore and Khulna. The prospects of the winter paddy crop for the Province as a whole are anticipated at present to be satisfactory, but much depends upon the rainfall which may be received in the very near future. District returns show that more rain is wanted especially on up-land soils in Bankura, Shahabad, Saran, Bhagalpur, Balasore, Angul, Puri and Palamau. The rain up to now has been beneficial for the continuation of sowings of rabi crops in many districts. It is reported to this Department that the price of common rice has risen in six districts, viz., Burdwan, Jessore, Khulna, Shahabad, Saran and Angul, and has fallen in Patna, Champaran and Hazaribagh. There is cattle-disease in Nadia, Patna, Gaya, Bhagalpur, Purnea, the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Sambalpur, Palamau, Manbhum and Cooch Behar. The fodder and water-supply is sufficient throughout the Province.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

2. The Collector of the district is responsible for the collection of water rates.

3. Except as provided in the Act and in these rules, no appeal shall lie from an order passed by a Canal Officer, but the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the order of the Divisional Canal Officer, and the Subdivisional Canal Officer or Divisional Canal Officer shall modify any order passed by him in accordance with the orders of the Superintending Canal Officer, who shall exercise a general control over the proceedings of all Canal Officers.

4. In appeals to the Collector under section 91 of the Act other than those especially provided for in rule 14 the Collector may require the Superintending Engineer to state his opinion in writing, which opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings of the case.

These preliminary applications must be made in writing and may be on plain paper. The person receiving them shall enter on the back any further data required.

On Leases and Permits.

6. Leases for the supply of water for any crop may be granted, on application, by the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

III.	For each watering supplied between 1st March and 1st June...	0	12

On Demand Statements.

9. The statement of the amounts due for the water rates leviable under these rules shall be prepared under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer in such form as shall, from time to time, be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor. A parcha showing the area and amount assessed against each cultivator shall be sent to him through the cultivator's representative before the demand statement is sent to the Collector for realization. Persons charged under rule 21 shall be served as soon as the charge is made, by post or otherwise, with a statement showing the amounts charged.

10. The rates of water supplied on kharif leases shall be payable in two equal instalments falling due respectively on the 1st January and 1st February following, but all sums of Rs. 10 and under shall become due on the 1st January and be payable in one instalment.

The rates for water supplied on rabi leases shall fall due on the 1st April following.

The rates for water supplied between 1st March and 1st June shall fall due on the 1st July following.

11. Water rates imposed under rule 8 shall fall due as soon as the assessment is made and shall be realised at once.

12. Objections to the demand statements must be presented within thirty days of the date on which the parcha was received by the lambardar, but the period shall be extended where reasonable cause for delay can be established.

On Remissions.

13. Remission of water rates, either in whole or in part, shall be granted as follows:—

(i) By the Divisional Canal Officer for errors in assessment or rates.

(ii) By the Divisional Canal Officer for injury to a crop on a leased area caused by a deficiency in the supply of water.

In the latter case a written application must be made at least 20 days before the crop is cut.

14. Remissions on other grounds than the above require the sanction of Superintending Canal Officer.

15. In cases where sums due on account of water rates cannot be collected owing to the death, bankruptcy, or absconding of the defaulter, the amount which is not realisable may be written off as irrecoverable on the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer.

On Cultivators' Representatives.

16. In all applications and permits the names of one or more persons shall be entered as lambardar, who will be responsible for discharging the duties mentioned below:—

(i) Obtaining signatures to applications and certifying to the correctness of the name.

(ii) Attending and giving assistance in measuring land irrigated, or proposed to be irrigated.

(iii) Giving timely information to the Canal Officer or subordinate of any insufficiency in the supply of water and promptly reporting when the irrigation of the leased area, or any channel, is complete.

(iv) Supervising the distribution of the water supplied through an outlet amongst the persons entitled thereto and reporting any misuse of the same.

(v) Being present when complaints are investigated by a Canal Officer, or subordinate, and giving information required in connection with the same.

(vi) Receiving parchas from the Canal Officer and distributing the same amongst the persons named therein.

(vii) Reporting before the 15th of October all cases in which crops have been injured by deficiency or irregularity of supply in the kharif season so that these cases may be investigated before water rates are demanded.

(viii) Assisting the Collector by pointing out the residences of the persons assessed and identifying them.

17. The remuneration for performing the duties mentioned in the rule immediately preceding shall be two per cent. on the assessment (excluding fractions of a rupee) which shall be paid by the Canal Officer. The amount paid shall be calculated in rupees and annas only, pies being omitted.

18. The lambardar will be appointed by the Subdivisional Officer in consultation with the applicants for the lease, and must be a substantial person having a beneficial interest in part of the land to be irrigated. There is no objection to different lambardars being appointed to represent sections of the applicants or to two or more persons being jointly appointed as lambardars on behalf of the whole of the applicants. In case the Subdivisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of lambardar, he shall nominate a lambardar for approval by the Divisional Canal Officer.

19. The Divisional Canal Officer may, for reasons which appear to him to be sufficient and which must be recorded, remove a lambardar from his appointment, and in that case a new lambardar shall be appointed in the manner prescribed in the rule immediately preceding.

20. The fees to be paid to lambardars will only be disbursed if the duties specified have been satisfactorily performed. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees payable for reasons to be recorded in writing.

On Unauthorised Irrigation.

21. For the unauthorised use of canal water a rate of Rs. 5 per acre shall be charged; this rate may, however, be reduced at the discretion of the Divisional Canal Officer.

22. When it comes to the knowledge of the Subdivisional Canal Officer that canal water has been taken in an unauthorised manner, he shall hold a local investigation, and, if he considers that the land deriving benefit is liable to assessment, he shall serve a notice on the persons concerned, fixing a date for hearing objections. Any objections made shall be taken down and the whole record forwarded to the Divisional Canal Officer for disposal.

23. The Divisional Canal Officer after hearing any objection that may be raised shall, if he is of opinion that the land should be assessed, fix the rates allowed under rule 21 and return the record to the Subdivisional Canal Officer who shall then complete the assessment. Water rates shall not be charged where the unauthorised irrigation has occurred through the act, neglect or default of a Canal Officer or subordinate.

24. Applications for leases may be subsequently received from villages in which unauthorised irrigation has occurred, and these villages may be granted leases; in such cases the persons assessed under rule 21 shall also pay the water rates due in respect of the lease subsequently granted, provided that the total of these two rates shall not exceed the maximum rate chargeable under rule 21. In such cases of double assessment the Divisional Canal Officer may remit, in whole or in part, the rates assessed under rule 21.

On Penalties and Cancelling of Leases.

25. The Superintending Canal Officer may, with the concurrence of the Collector, direct the Divisional Canal Officer to cease to issue permits for the irrigation of lands in villages where there have been constant difficulties in realising water rates until all the arrears of water rates due are paid up; and also, if specially so ordered, until half the amount due under new applications is paid in advance. An order under this rule shall be in force for the time stated therein, which shall not exceed three years.

Miscellaneous.

26. No person shall, without the written permission of the Divisional or Subdivisional Canal Officer, pass or cause any animal or vehicle to pass along or across any of the works channels or banks of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, except by means of such bridges, fords and ferries and their approaches as have been provided for the purpose. Any person who after due warning breaks this rule may be proceeded against under section 93, caluse (9) of the Bengal Irrigation Act III of 1876.

27. Unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operations of these rules, no officer employed on the canal shall have any interest in the distribution of water from it, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

28. Any Canal Officer may, in the case of pressing emergency, stop the supply of water to any canal or distributary. If such order is passed by an officer below the rank of a Divisional Canal Officer, it shall forthwith be reported to the Divisional Canal Officer, and if the stoppage exceeds five days in duration, to the Superintending Canal Officer.

29. No water shall be supplied nor shall any person be entitled to a supply of water until a permit signed by a Canal Officer authorised to sign a permit, has been signed and issued.

4. When a shop licensed for the sale of an excisable article upon which duty is levied under section 27 of the Bengal Excise Act, or under the Indian Tariff Act, is closed, the Collector will calculate the average daily sale in the shop based on the sales during the previous months of the year, and the profit of the vendor on such daily sale after deducting from the average total sale-proceeds the amount of duty, the cost price and contingent expenses at 6¼ per cent. of the sale-proceeds. Compensation should then be granted at the rate of such daily profit for the number of days during which the shop remains closed.

2. The disposal of things confiscated by order of a Magistrate, or of a Collector will be regulated as below stated.

3. Sale or other disposal of things confiscated under the Act will be deferred till the period of appeal against the order of confiscation is over, or if there be an appeal against such order till the appeal is disposed of, provided (1) that the sale of any animal or other thing ordered to be confiscated shall not be postponed on such account unless the owner or his agent shall deposit with the Collector such sum as the Collector may consider to be required and to be sufficient for the keep or safe custody of such animal or other thing pending the result of such appeal, and (2) that if the thing be of a perishable nature it may be sold immediately.

4. If any order of confiscation or anything be reversed on appeal, such thing or the sale-proceeds thereof, and the amount deposited, if any, for the keep or safe custody of such thing shall be at once returned to the owner thereof or his agent under the order of the Collector. Should no one appear to receive the thing confiscated, the sale-proceeds of the amount deposited, if any, within two months of the order on appeal, such thing, sale-proceeds or amount shall be forfeited to Government.

5. Confiscated foreign liquor, tari, pachwai and majum shall be sold by auction. If there is no bid the article will be destroyed.

7. Confiscated cocaine and novocaine when found fit for use shall be used for the public service in accordance with instructions specially framed from time to time in that behalf; when not fit for such use it shall be destroyed.

8. Confiscated articles other than those referred to above shall be sold to the highest bidder. If there is no bid, they shall be destroyed.

9. When the highest bidder for any confiscated thing sold under rules 5 and 6 is not a licensed vendor of such article, and the quantity thereof is more than the quantity fixed as the limit of retail sale under section 5 of the Act, the Collector in his discretion may grant to such person a permit to possess but not to sell the article under section 19, or may refuse to accept the bid and may accept another bid, or may order the article to be destroyed.

General Summary.—Light rain fell in Orissa. In Lower Bengal the rain previously received was enough for the agricultural operations of the week. There was no rain in Bihar and Chota Nagpur. Some more rain is reported to be wanting for aman paddy grown on high lands in Burdwan, Bankura, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, Saran, the Sonthal Parganas and Palamau. Winter paddy was damaged by the recent cyclone in Murshidabad and Jessore. Prospects of this crop are favourable. Sowings of rabi crops are in progress. The price of common rice has risen in the 24-Parganas, Nadia, Patna, Champaran, Darbhanga, Monghyr, Sambalpur and Hazaribagh and has fallen in Jessore, Gaya, Shahabad, Saran, Purnea, the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Puri, Ranchi, Palamau and Cooch Behar. Reports of cattle-disease have been received from Burdwan, Midnapore, Nadia, Jessore, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, Monghyr, Purnea, the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Puri, Sambalpur, Palamau, Manbhum and Cooch Behar, and from these reports it would appear that there has been much loss of cattle in Khulna, where the cyclone was severe. The fodder and water-supply is sufficient throughout the Province.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast; ▲, dew.

3. Where no other mode of service is prescribed by the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, or by any rules (other than this rule) made thereunder, service of a notice or summons, where it is addressed to one person, shall be effected in the following manner:—(a) by delivering the same to the person to whom it is directed, or to any adult member residing in the house of that person; (b) on failure of such delivery, by posting the same on some conspicuous part of the house in which the said person usually resides; or by delivering it to a general agent of the person to whom it is directed; or to any person who has been appointed in that behalf; or (c) by sending a registered letter containing the notice or summons directed to the said person at his usual place of abode; or (d) if no such place of abode can be found and if the notice or summons cannot be served in any of the modes hereinbefore mentioned, by posting the same at the landlord's office in the village, or at some conspicuous place on the land, to which the notice or summons relates. If it is addressed to a number of persons occupying or owning land in the same village, the notice will either be served in the manner prescribed above, or by proclamation and beat of drum, and by posting it, in the presence of not less than two persons who should be residents of the village or at least cultivating raiyats in it, in some conspicuous place in the village and also by fixing it up in the village office, if any, where the rent is usually paid.

CHAPTER II.

The rules prescribed in this Chapter are to be followed by Revenue officers in preparing a record-of-rights and settling rents under Chapter XII of the Act. With them are included the rules to be followed in the commutation of prædial conditions under Chapter XIII, the record of landlords' privileged lands under Chapter XIV and the record of special rights under Chapter XV, where such operations are conducted simultaneously with the preparation of a record-of-rights under Chapter XII.

In the case of an uninhabited village, any general notice to be served or publication to be made under the rules in this Chapter may be served or made in any inhabited village contiguous to that village, or, if there be no inhabited village contiguous to that village, in the inhabited village nearest to that village, or in the village in which the tenants and occupants of the lands of the uninhabited village are believed by the Revenue officer to reside.

6. The procedure of settlement shall include—

XIV.—Deposit of settlement records with Deputy Commissioner.

I.—Demarcation of boundaries.

7. Where there is a dispute as to a village boundary, the Revenue officer shall decide the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Bengal Survey Act, 1875.

8. Boundary pillars of a permanent nature shall be erected at every point where the boundaries of three or more villages meet, and may be erected wherever the Revenue officer considers it necessary to define by pillars the boundaries of estates or tenures or of lands which have been the subject of dispute.

II.—Field Measurement.

9. A field map of every village shall be prepared; it shall show the boundaries of every field separately held, or of such plot of land as the instructions of the Board of Revenue for giving effect to these rules may lay down.

III.—Khanapuri, i.e., preliminary preparation of the record.

10. The following are the principal documents to be prepared in the course of a survey and the preparation of a record-of-rights under Chapter XII of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

Village map.	Parchas.	Khatian.
Khasra.	Khewat.	Terij.

These and any other papers prescribed by the Board of Revenue shall be prepared in such manner as the Board may prescribe.

11. The record-of-rights, which shall be published under section 83 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be contained in the khewat and khatian, and such other papers as may be specified by general or special order of the Board of Revenue in the case of any local area.

12. (a) The khewat shall show the character and extent of the interests of proprietors and tenure-holders, such of their interests as are of a raiyati nature being also recorded in the khatian.

(b) The khatian shall show in detail for all the lands in the village, estate by estate, landlord by landlord, tenant by tenant, and occupant by occupant, the lands included in each estate owned by each landlord and occupied by each tenant or occupant, with particulars of rent and area and of the incidents of each tenancy. The commuted value of prædial conditions to which the tenant has been found liable, and, if any tenant is liable to any prædial conditions other than those to which the general body of tenants are liable, or is not liable to all the prædial conditions to which the general body are liable, then the prædial conditions to which such tenant is liable, shall be separately recorded in the khatian.

(c) Lands cultivated or otherwise held direct by a proprietor or tenure-holder shall be shown in detail in the khatian, and shall be entered either as landlord's privileged land within the meaning of section 118 (a) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, or as land held by the proprietor or tenure-holder but not privileged land within the meaning of that section.

(d) The khatian shall also show the respective rights of all persons privileged to take forest produce from jungle or waste land or to graze cattle on any land within the village.

IV.—Attestation of the Record.

13. (a) When the map, khasra, khewat and khatian for a village, or such portions of them as are prepared at khanapuri, have been prepared in the manner prescribed by these rules and by instructions of the Board of Revenue consistent with them, the Revenue officer shall issue a notification, in the form contained in Schedule I, fixing a day, which shall be not less than a week from the date of publication of the notification, on which he will be present at some place to be specified at or near the village for the purpose of attesting and completing the record-of-rights in respect of all particulars specified in the above rules 11 and 12.

(b) The notification shall state that on the day so fixed, or on any other day to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the Revenue officer will record rents and will decide all questions of status and claims to special rights or privileges in any lands and record existing rights of tenants or residents in regard to the jungle and waste lands of the village, and commute and include in the cash rent of the holding the value of prædial conditions in accordance with the rules, and will receive and dispose of applications for the commutation of produce rent, and deal with objections relating to entries in the record or omissions therefrom; and it shall require all parties interested in the subject-matter of the enquiry to attend at the time and place specified, with their parchas, and with such evidence as they have to offer in connection with the proceedings.

(c) Such notification shall be published by proclamation and fixed up in the presence of not less than two persons in some conspicuous place in the village to which it refers.

14. The Revenue officer may also, if he so deems fit, take such additional measures, under the powers conferred on him by rule 4, as he may deem desirable to procure the attendance, at the place specified in the notification issued under rule 13, of the occupants, under-raiyats, raiyats, tenure-holders, landlords and proprietors or their authorised agents.

15. On the date specified in the notification issued under rule 13, or on any other date to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the entries which have been made in the khewat and in each khatian shall be read out in the presence of such of the interested parties as are in attendance. If the correctness of any entry is questioned, the Revenue officer shall dispose of the objection, after local enquiry or otherwise: provided that, if the correctness of a measurement be objected to, and a fresh measurement be demanded, or if a local enquiry is necessary to decide any objection, the Revenue officer may require the cost of such remeasurement or local enquiry to be deposited. If it appears from the result of the measurement or local enquiry for which costs have been deposited that the objection was not frivolous or groundless, it shall be open to the Revenue officer to refund the costs, or any portion of the costs which he may think fit to refund.

16. The Revenue officer shall enquire into any claim put forward for Mundari khunkatti tenancies, and shall also ascertain which of the raiyats are raiyats having khunkatti rights or settled raiyats or occupancy raiyats, and shall record them as such.

The Revenue officer shall ascertain what raiyats are non-occupancy raiyats, and to this end he shall be entitled to call upon the landlord or his agent to produce a statement showing the names of raiyats alleged by him to be non-occupancy raiyats. On the production of such statement, he shall explain to those raiyats the provisions of Chapter IV of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908. If after such explanation a raiyat admits that he is a non-occupancy raiyat, and if the attestation officer is satisfied of the correctness of the admission, he shall record the raiyat as a non-occupancy raiyat. If he does not admit himself to be a non-occupancy raiyat, the Revenue officer shall call on the landlord to prove the allegations made by him in regard to such raiyat.

17. The Revenue officer shall ascertain and record what lands are korkar and what lands are Bhuinhari under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869, and what lands are khunkatti.

18. The Revenue officer shall summarily ascertain the rent at present payable by the tenant, and record it in the appropriate column of the khatian as the rent payable in respect of land held by the tenant. In recording rents the Revenue officer shall have regard to the provisions of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, regarding enhancement of rent, and shall record only such rent as is legally payable.

In order to carry out the instructions of this rule, the Revenue officer shall, before proceeding to attest the records of the village, hold a preliminary enquiry, at which he shall record briefly the deposition of the landlord or his agent and at least one tenant, and shall make such further enquiry as may be necessary, and shall record a finding upon the rates of rent prevailing in the village for each class of land.

19. In the course of the preliminary enquiry into the rates of rent prevailing in the village, the Revenue officer shall also ascertain the prædial conditions to which each class of tenants in the village is subject, and shall record a finding showing what prædial conditions, if any, are renderable by the general body of tenants, and their cash value, and shall prepare a statement in the form contained in Schedule VI. The cash value of prædial conditions, as commuted by the Revenue officer under section 111 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian and included in the total rent payable by raiyats. In the case of tenure-holders, the commuted value of prædial conditions will be entered in the khewat.

In ascertaining and commuting prædial conditions, the Revenue officer shall be guided by the provisions of section 111 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, special regard being given to the proviso to section 105 (3). Any prædial conditions which are by custom or contract already payable in cash shall still be treated as subject to the proviso to section 105 (3) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

20. Cesses which are authorised by law shall be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian, or, in the case of tenure-holders, in the khewat.

No demand of any other kind shall be recorded in the khatian.

21. The Revenue officer shall, at the time of attestation, also record, in a form prescribed by the Board, the rights, as specified in section 81 (a) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, which are enjoyed by any class of persons according to established custom in each plot of jungle in the village, and the conditions under which such customary rights are enjoyed.

22. Where a notification under section 127(b) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, has been issued, he shall also prepare a record of the rights and obligations of the village headmen.

23. When the record-of-rights and of existing rents has been prepared and attested in the manner prescribed in rules 13 to 22, and when the record has been arranged and corrected in accordance with the orders which the Revenue officer has passed, he shall record a proceeding, in which he shall state that attestation of the records and commutation of prædial conditions, if any, have been completed, and shall then cause the draft record-of-rights to be published in the village in the manner provided in rule 25.

24. If applications for the commutation of produce rents are filed before the Revenue officer at the time of attestation, they may be disposed of either before draft publication or after draft publication, according to convenience. If they are disposed of before draft publication, the settled rents shall be incorporated in the settlement record before it is published in draft.

V.—Publication of the draft record.

25. (a) As soon as the record-of-rights has been prepared and attested, a notice in the form contained in Schedule II shall be posted up at the landlord's office in the village, or, in the presence of not less than two persons, in some conspicuous place in the village, stating that the draft of the record will be published in the village on a day to be specified, not less than a week from the date of the posting of such notice, and calling on all persons interested to attend on the date so specified: Provided that the draft of the record shall not be published until the proceeding under rule 23 has been recorded.

(b) On the date fixed for the publication of the draft records the Revenue officer shall either proceed to the village himself and read the contents of the records in the presence of the parties who attend, or he shall depute an officer, not below the rank of kanungo, who shall read out the contents of the records in the presence of as many of the parties as attend; and the Revenue officer, or the officer deputed by him, as the case may be, shall at the same time inform the parties who attend that the draft records will be open for inspection for not less than one month in the office of the Revenue officer, or in such other convenient place as the Revenue officer may determine. The Revenue officer shall receive and consider any objection which may be made to any entry during the period named. Objections shall, as far as practicable, be made in the form contained in Schedule III.

VI.—Disposal of objections under sections 83 and 111 (6).

26. When an objection is made, before the expiry of the period of publication of the draft record prescribed under rule 25, regarding the correctness of any entry, or as to the propriety of any omission, notice of the objection, in the form contained in Schedule IV, shall be served on all persons whose interest may, in the opinion of the Revenue officer, be affected thereby, and they shall be called upon to attend at such time and place as the Revenue officer may fix for the disposal of the objection. If no person attends to contest the objection, and the Revenue officer is satisfied that the notice of objection has been duly served on all persons interested, the objection may be allowed and the records amended accordingly, or the person who made the objection may, if the Revenue officer thinks fit, be called upon to produce evidence in support of his objection.

All such objections shall be dealt with summarily under such instructions as the Board of Revenue may prescribe.

VII.—Settlement of rents before final publication.

27. When the Revenue officer settles fair rents in isolated or individual cases, before final publication, under section 85 (3) (a) or (b), he shall follow mutatis mutandis the procedure laid down in rules 32 to 37 below for the settlement of fair rents after final publication, and shall incorporate the settled rents in the record to be finally published under rule 29.

28. When rents are settled, before final publication, for whole villages or for larger areas, the Revenue officer shall adopt the following procedure:—

(a) He shall first serve a notice on the village in which settlement of rents is about to be made. The notice shall be in the form contained in Schedule VII, and shall set forth that on a date named and at a place named the Revenue officer will settle fair rents in respect of all estates, tenures or holdings and for unsettled lands included in such village. Such notice shall be served at least one week previous to the date fixed for settlement of fair rents. When such notice has been served it shall be held that all persons have been sufficiently warned of the date fixed:

Provided that when in the course of proceedings a Revenue officer proposes to alter an existing rent, and the parties have not attended in compliance with the general notice, the Revenue officer shall serve each person interested with a special notice, and the fair rent shall not be settled in the absence of such person until after due service of such special notice has been proved.

(b) On the date fixed in the notice under rule 28 (a), or any subsequent date to which the proceeding may be adjourned, the Revenue officer shall proceed to settle rents in the manner prescribed in rules 35 (a) and 37.

(c) The settlement of rent for any number of tenants occupying land under the same landlord, whose interest is recorded in the same khewat entry in the same village, may, upon the application of the parties or at the discretion of the Revenue officer, be disposed of in one proceeding, provided that if at any time it appears to the Revenue officer that the question between any two of the parties, of whom one is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, he may order a separate trial to be held of that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

(d) When a fair rent has been settled under these rules, it shall be entered in the khatian as the rent payable in respect of the holding from the date prescribed by section 97 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

(e) It shall not be necessary for a Revenue officer to draw up a separate decree with regard to the fair rent settled, but the entry made in his decision or in the schedule attached thereto with regard to the fair rent settled shall be held to be a decree.

VIII.—Final publication of the Record-of-rights.

29. When all objections under sections 83 and 111 (6) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, have been disposed of as provided for in rule 26, and when the draft records have been corrected in accordance with the orders passed, and when the rents, if any, settled under section 85 (3) (a) or (b) or under section 61 of the Act have been duly incorporated in the record, the Revenue officer shall finally frame the records and cause them to be published by notifying, in the form contained in Schedule V, that their contents will be read out in the village on a date to be specified, not being less than a week from the date of the publication of such notice, and by reading them out himself or causing them to be read in the village on the date so specified, in the manner prescribed in rule 25, in the presence of the parties or of as many of them as attend. The officer engaged in final publication shall serve a copy of the entries in any record prepared under section 127 upon all persons interested in these entries, in the manner prescribed in rule 3.

30. When the record-of-rights of all villages in any local area has been finally published, the Revenue officer shall submit a report to the Local Government, containing such particulars as may be necessary in order to enable the Local Government to issue a notification under section 84 (2) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

IX.—Distribution of copies of the Record-of-rights to parties interested.

31. (a) A copy of the record-of-rights as finally published, or an extract therefrom, shall be made over to the landlord concerned, or, where there are more landlords than one, to their common agent or common manager, or, if there be no common agent or common manager, to such person among the landlords as the Revenue officer may think fit. The copy or extract shall bear a certificate, under the Revenue officer's signature and seal, that it is a copy of or extract from the record-of-rights as finally published.

(b) An extract from the khatian relating to his tenancy shall be given to every tenant, under the seal of the Revenue officer and under the signature of an officer duly authorized by the Revenue officer to give copies.

(c) Copies of records, or of extracts from them, supplied to landlords and tenants under this rule shall be given free or on payment according as in the case of each local area the Local Government may direct. When payment is required, the sum recovered shall be adjusted against the expenses incurred on account of survey and settlement.

X.—The settlement of fair rents after final publication.

32. When the landlord or tenant applies for a settlement of a fair rent, he shall be considered as plaintiff and the opposite party as defendant.

33. Notice, in the form contained in Schedule VIII, shall be served on every person interested in the application, together with a copy of the application, or an extract therefrom, or a summary thereof, so far as the application concerns such person.

34. With the consent of the Revenue officer, any number of tenants of the same status holding land under the same landlord, whose interest is recorded in the same khewat entry in the same village, may make a joint application for the settlement of rents, or may be joined as defendants in the same proceeding on a similar application by the landlord: Provided that, if at any time it appears to the Revenue officer that the question between any two of the parties, of whom one is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, he may order a separate trial to be held of that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

35. (a) On the date fixed for the settlement of fair rents, or any subsequent date to which the proceedings are adjourned, the Revenue officer shall read aloud, or cause to be read aloud in his presence, the name of each tenant whose rent has to be settled, the area of his tenancy, and the existing rent, and shall then proceed to settle a fair rent under the provisions of section 85 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

When the record has been read over as provided for above, the Revenue officer shall record all claims to enhancement or reduction of the existing rent, and shall try and decide any issues which may be raised under section 86 of the said Act.

(b) Where a landlord or tenant does not attend, after due service of notice has been proved, the procedure may be ex parte.

(c) Where a landlord or tenant appears, the Revenue officer shall record evidence in the manner prescribed in section 164 of the said Act, and shall settle a fair and equitable rent. In important cases the evidence shall be recorded at length.

(d) When a fair rent has been settled under these rules, it shall be entered in the khatian as the rent payable in respect of the holding from the date prescribed by section 97 of the said Act.

36. It shall not be necessary for a Revenue officer to draw up a separate decree with regard to the fair rent settled, but the entry made in his decision or in the schedule attached thereto with regard to the fair rent settled shall be held to be a decree. The Revenue officer shall carefully scrutinize the individual entries in schedules, where rents are settled for a number of tenants in joint proceedings, to ensure that injustice be not caused to individuals by the application of general rules.

37. When, in the settlement of fair rents, issues are raised under section 86 of the said Act, they shall be heard and decided before fair rents are settled. Proceedings under the said section 86 shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties. Such suits shall ordinarily be tried separately for each tenancy, unless the Revenue officer, for reasons to be recorded by him, considers that the suits affecting two or more tenancies may conveniently be tried together without prejudice to the parties concerned.

XI.—The trial of suits under sections 87, 111 (8), 130, and 252 of the Act.

38. Proceedings under section 87, 111 (8), 130 or 252 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties. The finally published records shall be corrected in accordance with the orders that may be passed in any such proceedings.

XIV.—Deposit of settlement records with the Deputy Commissioner.

39. The finally published record, as completed under rules 35 and 38, shall be made over to the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and shall bear a certificate, that it is the finally published record, under the Revenue officer's signature and seal.

CHAPTER III.

General scale of fees.

40. For the service of every notice under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, not being a notice issued by any Revenue or Civil Court (fees for serving which are regulated by the Court-fees Act, 1870), and not being provided for by any other rule made under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, a process-fee of 8 annas shall be levied if the notice be directed to one or more persons residing in the same village.

Where such notices are directed to several persons resident in different villages, a fee of 8 annas shall be levied for service in each village.

In addition to the above fee, the actual charge which must be incurred, if it is necessary to travel by railway or boat, or to cross ferries, shall be levied from, and paid by, the person at whose instance the process is issued, before issue of the process. If a peon carries more than one process involving charges for railway fare, boat-hire, &c., the sum leviable shall be charged, in equal shares, upon all the processes so carried.

If a peon is detained at the place of service for more than 24 hours at the request of the person at whose instance the process was issued, or of his agent, such person or agent must then and there pay demurrage at the rate of 3 annas a day. Unless the demurrage is paid, the peon must decline to wait. No demurrage shall be charged if the delay was not due to the person requiring the process or to his agent.
